4-Town Sewers Given Gateway Board Approval

Final approval was given by the East-West Gateway Coordinating Council board yesterday to a four-township sanitary sewer installation program. The plan involves linking the new sewers to the Granite City sewage treatment plant.

By HARRY BARNES
Press-Record Staff Writer

A decision to seek an early meeting with sponsors of the four-township sanitary sewer construction program to resolve problems confronting both the city and the Quad-City area townships in obtaining state and federal grants for projected sewer programs was reached by the Granite City Council Monday night.

The council, acting on a motion by Alderman Paul Schuler following a discussion in which several aldermen reversed their earlier policies pertaining to sewage treatment and sewer construction work, instructed the city's public engineer, Edward Juneau of the Sheppard, Morgan & Schwaab engineering firm, to arrange a meeting with the township group.

Coincidentally, Juneau also is the engineer for the township sewer construction program which is sponsored by the Madison County Board and is designed for installation of collector sewers in the unincorporated areas of Venice, Nameoki and Chouteau townships.

That program also provides for construction of interceptor sewers by the townships and treatment of sewage at Granite City's Sewage Treatment plant.

Time to Get Going

Schuler's motion came after several aldermen who have opposed a city tie-in to the township program commented that recent developments in sewer planning and prospects of revised state and federal grant requirements make it necessary for "us (the city) to get together (with the townships) to get things ironed out and get our projects going."

The action was prompted by a report by Mayor Donald Partney of a meeting during the weekend at Belleville in which Illinois Environmental Protection Agency officials disclosed that the East-West Gateway Coordinating Council, the regional clearing agency for all improvement programs, has not been recertified by the U. S. Department of Housing and Urban Development Agency as the region's authorized planning agency.

Mayor Partney contended that the failure of HUD to re-

PAUL H. KELLY
UF Drive Chairman

Kelly Heads Drive

Paul H. Kelly, plant manager of A. O. Smith Corp., has been appointed 1973 campaign chairman for the Tri-Cities United Fund, it was announced today.

The appointment was announced by Melvin O. McKay, president of the Tri-Cities United Fund who said the selection was made by the Executive Committee and confirmed in a meeting of the UF Board of Directors.

Kelly, who served as a co-vice-chairman of the 1971 fund campaign, is expected to pick his co-chairmen and drive leaders soon, McKay said. The quota for the fund drive next fall will be announced during the summer.

The new drive chairman joined A. O. Smith Corp. in 1951 as a training and employment specialist in Milwaukee, Wis. and was transferred to the Granite City plant in 1958. He served here as general supervisor of training and safety and as general supervisor of labor relations.

He was transferred in 1962 to the Glascote Division of A. O. Smith in Cleveland, O., as manager of personnel, remaining there two years. He returned to the Granite City plant

Conalco, Local Face Deadline

The 574 members of United Steelworkers of America Local 4804 at Consolidated Aluminum Corp., the former Dow and Phelps-Dodge plant in Madison, are to meet at 10 a.m. Sunday at the Labor Temple in Granite City to either consider a contract or take a strike vote.

Negotiations have been conducted over the last 45 days and resumed this morning.

"We will meet every day until Sunday and we are fully expecting that we can work out the problems by then," John Coleman of Jackson, Tenn., manager of industrial relations for Conalco and the company's chief negotiator, said today. Yesterday's negotiatiating session lasted until 1:30 a.m. today.

Union members said the company has discussed an 80 cent hourly equivalent reduction of fringe benefits from hourly workers in seeking to become more competitive with southern plants. Coleman denied it and said, "We are trying to juggle about 80 cents per hour and put it where it is needed more."

The Steelworkers' present three-year contract is due to expire at midnight Sunday. Coleman said any new contract likely would be for three years.

Conalco leases the Madison plant from Dow Chemical, which formerly occupied it. Dow leased the facility to Phelps-Dodge Aluminum Products Co., which merged with Conalco in April 1971 and transfered the lease-purchase agreement to Conalco. The agreement is to expire in 1974.

The plant employs the 574 production and maintenance worker and about 100 salaried office and management personnel.

Negotiating for the company are Coleman and Charles Zollner, plant manager. Members of the union negotiating team are Clyde Boyd, Steelworkers' staff representative, and Darrell Fricke, president of the local.

'Law Day' Open House At Courthouse Friday

With "Law Day, U.S.A." set for next Monday, the Madison County observance has been planned for tomorrow, when there will be open house at the County Courthouse in Edwardsville. The public is being encouraged to visit county offices there during the day.

Another Friday event will be a noon luncheon at Rusty's by the Madison County Bar Association. An annual citizenship award is to be presented and there will be a talk by Charles A. Schweighauser, executive director of the Coalition for the Environment-St. Louis Region.

Army Auto Usage Issue

Congressman Melvin Price has denied a charge by syndicated columnist Jack Anderson that he has been a part of a general Congressional practice costing taxpayers "probably" millions of dollars by using the Pentagon motor pool for chauffeuring. Anderson said in one case Price and two other representatives were driven in Army vehicles from the Rayburn-House office building to the Pentagon for lunch.

Planned Parenthood Clinic to Open Here

By VALERIE EVENDEN
Press-Record Staff Writer

Grants totaling $74,216 to establish a Planned Parenthood Clinic in the Quad-Cities was awarded this week by federal agencies, it was announced today by Edward P. Schenk, executive director of the Madison County Economic Opportunity Commission.

Funds amounting to $63,216 were granted by the U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare and there was an $11,000 grant from the U. S. Office of Economic Opportunity.

The clinic will be located at 1322 Needringhaus Ave., in offices formerly occupied by Dr. Luis Ventura, according to Mrs. Sue Crimminger, county EOC director of planning.

Mid-June has been set as the target date for the clinic to begin functioning on a full-time basis. An open house is planned also during June to permit the public to inspect the facility, Mrs. Crimminger said.

Staffing Needs

Schenk said the clinic will be staffed by a project director, probably a registered nurse with administrative capabilities; a licensed practical nurse; a secretary-distributive worker; a bookkeeper; and an outreach" worker who will take the Planned Parenthood Program to individuals in areas of the Quad-Cities who cannot come to the central clinic.

Two physicians will work on a per-day fee basis, with the participating doctors to be recommended by a special committee of Tri-City Medical Society members.

Physicians on the committee named to aid in implementing the Planned Parenthood program are Dr. David Friedman, chairman, and Dr. Alvin Kirkball, Dr. Hector Zevallos, Dr. Harold E. Toussaint, Dr. Jose D. Pineda and Dr. Melvin J. Freedman.

Immediate objectives of the Planned Parenthood program are to provide family planning services to 1,000 patients located in and around the Quad-City area; to develop an efficient outreach system in the area; to coordinate an efficient referral system with health and welfare agencies in the county.

To provide all approved methods of contraception consistent with patient choice and acceptance; to provide community educational programs on family planning in cooperation with the schools and other agencies concerned with services to families.

And to encourage the future development of additional family service providers and project locations through which a coordinated, county-wide family planning program can be achieved.

Long-range plans include efforts to expand the program within the next five years to other county communities; to provide early detection of venereal disease; to improve the maternal health of clients by furnishing every woman the chance to space or limit the size of her family; and to provide an opportunity for low-income families to improve their social and economic well being.

To help implement both sets of goals, the Quad-City area was selected as the initial site for a clinic, Schenk said.

He noted that services at this location will be offered to patients in the surrounding rural areas. Various projects in progressive stages will be started at other areas in the county.

Site of the clinic was selected due to adequate parking, central location and access to St. Elizabeth Hospital as a back-up medical facility, Schenk said.

Reminder--Turn Clocks Ahead Saturday Night

"Spring forward, fall back"—the old slogan used to remind persons to set their clocks in the proper direction for the beginning and end of Daylight Savings Time, may be applied this weekend.

Central Daylight Savings Time will "dawn" on the Quad-Cities at 2 a.m. Sunday but residents are reminded to turn their clocks forward one hour before retiring Saturday night.

Daylight time will remain in effect through Oct. 29, the last Sunday in October, at which time Glocks will be turned back to Central Standard Time.

Study School's Drainage Effect

The Granite City Board of Education came under fire this week from the East Side Levee and Sanitary District for constructing a new elementary school on Old Alton Road, the Johnson School, before drainage plans had been approved by the levee district.

During heavy rains last week, residents of low land across Old Alton Road and just south of the school complained that water from the school was adding to a flooding problem in their yards.

On Tuesday, school officials and William "Mike" Ebersoldt, president of the levee district, toured the area and found that water was not draining as topographic maps had indicated it would when the school was planned.

School officials present were Assistant Supt. Frank Kraus; Tully A. Meubner, director of buildings and grounds; and Vasil Eftimoff, administrative assistant-pupil personnel. Virgil Dulgeroff, architect of the building, also was present on the tour.

Drainage pipes from the school pass under Old Alton Road and drain onto the Schaefer farm. Drainage onto the Schaefer property was part of the agreement reached with the late Ervin Schaefer when he sold property for the school to the district, Heubner explained.

"When we planned for the school, we were told the water could be dumped onto Mr. Schaefer's land which would drain north into a culvert under the road and along a ditch, under Highway 3 and then into the river," Heubner told Ebersoldt.

He added that natural drainage had been blocked by Route 3, so the school district urged the state highway department to install a culvert under the road, a project which was completed before construction of the school began.

"The problem is that it has not worked," Ebersoldt said, pointing to a flooded field across from the school.

As they toured the area, Ebersoldt pointed out that the water was not moving northward toward the Chouteau Ditch but was stagnant.

"Why didn't you come to the levee board for a permit before construction was started?," he asked. "This is just one small example of something that has happened to our county," he said, adding that most Madison County ditches and pipes were installed to drain farmland. "The problem has multiplied one hundred-fold since then."

B. J. Davis, school superintendent, and William Schooley, school attorney, visited the flooded area yesterday.

"We are going to see if there is anything we can do to alleviate it," Davis said. He indicated he did not think the new school was responsible for most of the problem.

"That has always been a flood area and there is a small rise of ground between where our pipes drain and some of those houses, which should keep our water out of their yards," he explained.

Supt. Davis said that if the Schaefer family will grant permission, the school district may build that rise higher to prevent water going over it in heavy rains.

He said he will inform the school board at Monday night's meeting that school engineers are studying the problem and may suggest solutions this month.

County Board To Hold Final Meeting Friday

The Madison County Board of Supervisors will hold its final meeting as a governmental organization at 9:30 a.m. Friday at the courthouse in Edwardsville.

The 49-member board will be succeeded by a new 29-member County Board elected on April 4. The new board will be in effect May 1 and is to hold an organization meeting at 9:30 a.m. Monday.

Pending business of the old board may include a request to rezone a 772-acre tract of land in Chouteau and Edwardsville Townships for development by a land trust headed by Madison Mayor Mike Sasyk.

The board is exepected to let the issue revert to the new board.

Included on Friday's agenda is a request to increase the mental health fund by $15,200, recommended by the 708 Mental Health Board, and reports on bids for paving the dog pound area, for radios for sheriff's cars, for remodeling of the probation office and for an ice maker at the nursing home.

Study New Route for Drainage Of Dobrey

A new route for construction of a drainage channel that would relieve flooding in the Dobrey Slough area of Nameoki Township and Granite City has been developed and will be presented for approval soon to John Guillou, director of the Illinois Division of Waterways, Mayor Donald Partney told the Granite City Council Monday night.

If the plan is approved by the state, it would end a long delay in getting the Dobrey Slough drainage improvement project off the ground and assure an early start on building a two-mile channel from the flood area to Horseshoe Lake, the mayor said.

The new proposal will require approximately $90,000 in addition to funds already set up for the project.

As originally planned the drainage work was to cost an estimated $170,000, including $110,000 allocated by the state, $40,000 from the East Side Levee and Sanitary District and $20,000 provided by Granite City.

The new proposal involves installation of a 42-inch enclosed drainage pipe that would skirt the edge of the right-of-way of the Alton & Southern railroad from a point near Pontoon Road to the lake.

Mayor Partney said he has obtained all but one of the easements necessary to the project, and that he has been assured cooperation in obtaining the remaining easement from the property owner.

Will Seek Funds

"As soon as I have all of the easements and a clear route for the drainage installation, I will take them to Springfield for conferences with Guillou," the mayor told the aldermen. "At the same time I plan to ask the state for additional funds to get the project under way."

William "Mike" Ebersoldt, president of the Levee District, has endorsed the new program and will assist city officials and engineers in obtaining state approval, Partney said.

Drainage of Dobrey Slough, which overflows its banks during heavy rains and floods streets and homes in the Angela and Roney Drive areas of Nameoki Township and the Vesci-Lynch-Stearns avenues area of Granite City, has been planned for more than a year.

It has been held up by the lack of three major parcels of right-of-way necessary to a drainage plan originally proposed by the Illinois Division of Waterways.

The right-of-way was to be obtained by the Levee District, but the district's efforts ran into a snag when the owners of the three tracts refused to sell the easements. Condemnation procedings were filed in circuit court, but have not yet been heard.

Need Relief Now

Mayor Partney told the council that it is possible the condemnation proceedings could tie up the project for more than five years, and that the Dobrey Slough area "needs relief just as soon as we possibly can do the work."

The mayor said he and Edward Juneau, the city's public engineer, and other city officials met with representatives of the Alton & Southern railroad to request right-of-way along the railroad.

"We were informed that permission for such easements would be a long procedure because the request would have to be approved by the board of directors," the mayor said. "For that reason, we began gathering easements just outside the railroad right-of-way."

Fire Destroys Lumber

Fire caused an estimated $6,000 damage to a railroad flatcar of lumber on the Chicago & Northwestern Railroad tracks at Mockingbird Lane Tuesday night.

Long Lake volunteer firemen were on the scene from 11:45 p.m. Tuesday until 1 a.m. Wednesday. Cause of the fire is unknown.

New Interest in Industrial Park

By MARION BARTOSIAK
Press-Record Staff Record

Another firm has expressed an interest in locating a new manufacturing plant at the Stephen Maeras Industrial Park, it was announced by Mayor Mike Sasyk at a Madison City Council meeting Tuesday night.

The mayor said the company would require from 45,000 to 50,000 square feet of floor space and wants to make use of the city of Madison's leasing arrangements rather than construct its own facility.

The firm, which has two others under plants and is expanding, would hire about 80 employes during the first year, the mayor said. The company has agreed that all employes except for supervisory personnel would be Madison residents.

Mayor Sasyk said he plans to meet with officials of the firm within the next 10 days to discuss financial arrangements. As in previous cases, the company is to remain unidentified during negotiations.

Financial Questions

A question of legality of state statutes authorizing the city to borrow money for industrial development was voiced by the mayor who said he plans to confer with attorneys for the Illinois Municipal League.

The statute in question never has been tested in the courts, it was reported at the meeting. With the doubtful status, city officials said bonding houses may back off on bond offers.

"It will depend upon the cost of the plant to the city and the firm's investment plans," Mayor Sasyk said. "It would be agreeable to break even if city residents are employed.

"It's a matter of getting the price right so we could pay for the investment."

Oppose Sewer Hike

Mayor Sasyk reported that the city will oppose a sewer use fee hike proposed by the East Side Levee & Sanitary District.

He said the district's Lansdown sewage treatment plant has been a profitable operation and an increase in rates would violate original agreements between the city and district. The matter was referred to the legal department for study.

The council adopted a resolution condemning property at 908r Jackson St., 922 Jackson St., 916 Madison St., 728 Madison St. and 714 Jefferson St. on the recommendation of Pete Skundrich, building inspetcor.

Doctor of Philosophy Degree to Don Cairns

The degree of Doctor of Philosophy in Business Administration has been conferred on Donald F. Cairns, a vice-president of Granite City Steel Co. by St. Louis University.

Dr. Cairns received a master's degree in business administration from St. Louis University in 1962 and a B.S. in Civil Engineering from the University of Illinois in 1950. He was plant engineer for the blast furnace department at Granite City Steel, a subsidiary of National Steel Corp., and assistant to the president prior to his election as a vice-president in 1971.

Recognized as an authority on the control of air pollution, Dr. Cairns is a member of the Environmental Quality Control Committee of the Air Pollution Control Association, and a former president and former chairman of the Industrial Waste Control Council of St. Louis.

His contributions to the establishment of air pollution control regulations in the St. Louis area earned him a letter of commendation from President Richard M. Nixon in 1970.

Dr. Cairns is vice-chairman of the St. Louis County Planning Commission and first vice-president of the Manufacturer's Association of the Tri-Cities. He is a former president of the Edgewood Children's Center and former chairman of the Webster Groves Planning Commission. He is 47, lives at 17 East Swon Avenue, Webster Groves, is married and has one son.

National Steel Fourth Quarter Income Higher

Pittsburgh — Net earnings of $14,883,134, equivalent to 80 cents per share, were reported for the first quarter Wednesday by President George A. Stinson of National Steel Corp., owner of Granite City Steel Co.

The net profit improvement of 17% was attained by lowered costs and higher prices, Stinson said.

For the comparable 1971 quarter, Stinson told the company's 43rd annual stockholders' meeting, profit was $12,724,186, equivalent to 68 cents per share, after adjusting, for the change required in 1972 to the equity accounting method for affiliated companies. Before adjusting for this change, profit was $12,018,360, or 64 cents per share.

"We are encouraged by this step toward the profitability we believe we should achieve," Stinson said. "Our aim is to continue to improve on this performance."

Stinson noted that since the 1971 annual meeting, National acquired Granite City Steel. Inclusion of this acquisition in the consolidated National Steel figures diluted per share earnings by 11 cents in 1972's first quarter.

Granite City Steel profit is included in the 1971 first quarter report as adjusted, on a pooling of interests bassis and caused no dilution for that quarter.

Sales and operating revenue during the first 1972 quarter totaled $397,548,926, compared with $390,034,524 (as restated to reflect the Granite City merger) in the first quarter of 1971.

Primary steel production, at 2,382,800 tons, was up from the 2,168,000 in 1971's first quater. First quarter, 1972, shpiments were 1,801,000, compared with 1,983,600 a year earlier.

Provision for depreciation and depletion during the first quarter of 1972 was $23,661,333, compared with $22,584,734 in the first 1971 quarter.

Investment credit for the first 1972 quarter totaled $1,200,000, equivalent to six cents per share, up sharply from the $397,0000, or two cents per share during the comparable 1971 quarter.

Venice-Madison Sewer Fee Raised by 60%

A new schedule of sewer rental fees assessed by the East Side Levee and Sanitary district for the Lansdowne Sewerage System were announced this week for the Venice and Madison area, raising the existing fee approximately 60% for the average houheholder users.

The minimum fee for non-industrial users who use less than 500 cubic feet of water per month has been set at $1.90 per month in the new schedule. The old rate was $1.15 per month.

Other fees of residential and small business customers are $2.90 per month for those using 500 to 800 cubic feet of water per month; $3.60 per month for those using 800 to 1,100 cubic feet of water per month, and $3.60 per month for those using 1,100 cubic feet, plus 30 cents per 100 cubic feet for all water used in excess of 1,100 cubic feet.

The new fees are scheduled in an amended ordinance approved by the levee board last week.

$10,000 Bonds Set in Airline Extortion Bid

Two Granite City men charged with attempting to extort $1 million from Pan American Airways were being held this week in the Springfield city jail after the U. S. District Court set bonds at $10,000.

They are Francis Meyers, 18, of 1728 Edison Ave., and Lawrence Butts, 30, of 1737 State St. The court appointed Alton attorney Joseph Bacus to represent them.

They were arrested Friday evening by the FBI at the Sav-Mart Store on Collinsville Road.

Robert Hurd, Pan Am office manager in St. Louis reported this week that he had received five telephone calls in which the callers threatened the destruction of nine Pan Am planes if $1 million was not delivered to the store.

He said the FBI monitored the last four calls. Airline officials were asked to deliver the money in $100 bills in a suitcase to the store, order a soft drink at the snack bar and leave the case after finishing the drink. Hurd said.

After appointment of Bacus, a member of the firm of Wiseman, Shaikewitz and McGivern, U. S. District Judge Omer Poos disqualified him self from further participation in the case as he owns Pan Am stock. The bonds were set by Magistrate William Giffin.

Rev. Bruce Bowers Alpha Center Pastor

A social party to welcome the Rev. and Mrs. Bruce Bowers and his family, the new pastor of Alpha Center, a mission of Calvary Baptist Church, was held this week.

The reception was held at the Center, 620 Niedringhaus Ave., and was attended by approximately 75 members.

The Rev. Bowers is a son of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Bowers Jr., 2564 Cleveland Blvd. His wife is the former Diane Martin, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard F. Martin, 106 E. Cypress St., Normal, Ill.

The new pastor and his wife are parents of three children, Marlo, 3, Martin, 2 and Marcie 4 months.

A graduate of Granite City High School, Rev. Bowers, attended Illinois State University for two years and served in the U. S. Air Force four years. He was discharged from service in February this year.

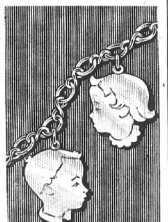

The Rev. Bowers has invited the public to attend services Sunday at the mission, beginning with Sunday School at 9:30 a.m., morning worship at 10:45 a.m. and evening services at 7 p.m. Prayer Services are held at 7:30 p.m. on Wednesday.

Boy Caught in Burglary

A youth, 16, was taken into custody after he was caught breaking into the home of Dwayne Kelly, 2317 Cardinal Ave., it was reported at 10 a.m. Wednesday. Entry was gained by removing a pane from a front basement window.

Watch Stolen from Auto

Steve Yorko, 1330 Granite Ave., reported at 9:45 p.m. Wednesday that a $40 watch and a small fire extinguisher was stolen from his auto while it was parked on his driveway during the night.

FREE MEAL FOR TRASH! That's the deal McDonald Restaurant has made with the Boy Scouts on Saturday, which has been designated nationally as Keep America Beautiful Day. James L. Steel, left, unit manager of the local McDonald's, explains the project to Cub Scout Kent Monical, a member of Pack 109, sponsored by Lake School PTA. The Scouts will pick up litter throughout the area and receive a free meal ticket for each bag of trash turned in.

Keep America Beautiful Observance Set Saturday

Maurice Dailey Jr., chairman of the Cahokia Mound Council, Boy Scouts of America KAB Project, announced today that Scouting Keep America Beautiful Day will be observed Saturday.

Scouting Keep America Beautiful Day is a highlight of the continuing environmental program, Project SOAR (for Save our American Resources) of the Boy Scouts. The program concentrates on environmental awareness and action for its improvement.

As a part of the celebration about 60 Cub Scout, Boy Scout and Explorer units will help in an anti-litter campaign with other interested organizations. Also as a part of the celebration, over 10,000 Keep America Beautiful Day bulletin inserts have been distributed to churches throughout the Quad-Cities area.

Dailey said that the Granite City Optimist Club and McDonald's Restaurant of Granite City were cooperating in the project. He said that the Optimist Club, a long-time supporter of keeping Granite City clean, would have members assisting in a general clean-up in the downtown area and that they would put out new litter cans in strategic places throughout the business district.

McDonald's Restaurant is cooperating with the Scouts by supplying the litter bags and by giving a free meal, of the Scout's choice, for each bag of litter picked up during the clean-up.

Area-Wide Cleanup

The clean-up effect will begin with a kick-off at 9 a.m. in Civic Park in Granite City where all of the Cubs, Scouts, Explorers and Optimist Club members will gather for instructions. From Civic Park the participants will fan out in all directions in the downtown area to sweep the sidewalks and pickup any trash they may find. Immediately following the clean-up of the downtown area, the members of the participating Cub packs, Scout troops and Explorer posts will go to their own neighborhood areas and clean-up there.

Collection points for the pick-up of trash, following the clean-up of the downtown area, will be on the corners by the Civic Park, the YMCA, in front of City Hall, in front of Illinois Power Co. and by the Public Library. Pickup points for trash in other areas will be in front of Venice Recreation Center, Madison Recreation Center, McKinley School, Niedringhaus School, Frohardt School and Mitchell School.

Pickup time for these areas will be from 1 to 1:30 p.m. on Saturday. Trucks furnished by G. H. Sternberg & Co. of Granite City will be used to pick-up the litter collected in all areas.

As each Scout places his bag of litter on one of the trucks, he will be given a complimentary "Be My Guest for Dinner Card" from McDonald's Restaurant.

Truck Sideswipes Car

An auto driven by Judy Fenoglio, 2550 Circle Drive, was sideswiped by a tractor-trailer truck driven by George A. Hamm, Palmyra, at 2:55 p.m. Tuesday at W. 25th Street and Missouri Avenue. Hamm was charged with following too closely.

Coolidge Fun Fair Scheduled Friday

A spook house, vaudeville acts, dunking machine, cake walk, darts, basketball and many other games will be featured at the Coolidge Junior High School Fun Fair between 4 p.m. and 9 p.m., Friday. The public is invited, according to Ron Ward, Fun Fair chairman.

The students and faculty of the school are working together and hoping to raise enough money to buy a video tape machine. The type of equipment they want to purchase will be on display at the Fun Fair and those attending will have an opportunity to see themselves on TV. The cost of the video equipment is around $2,000. The machine would be used by all classes in the school.

According to Ward this is the first time the school has sponsored such an event. The students and faculty want to make it at annual event if attendance warrants, he said.

certify the Gateway Council creates "a problem that means we don't have any priority for state and federal grants for the city's secondary sewage treatment program, and that we don't have any idea now when money for our secondary treatment program will be available."

Grants Held Up

The mayor said that he and a number of other city officials were told in the weekend meeting that the Gateway Council now has no official status as the region's authorized planning center. As a result, the mayor said, EPA officials pointed out that grants for secondary sewage treatment plants from Illinois' $200 million bond issue are being held up.

He was referring primarily to the city's plans for construction of a secondary sewage treatment plant which now is being planned by the MW Engineering firm of St. Louis.

Continued planning of the secondary sewage treatment program without assurances of federal and state grants "will bankrupt the city," the mayor commented.

The city and township sewer programs are separate projects which, until now, have resulted in a conflict between the two agencies.

The city originally proposed construction of a series of interceptor sewers in conjunction with development of its secondary sewage treatment program.

Town Plan Favored

The four-township program which provides for construction of sanitary collector sewers in Venice, Nameoki and Chouteau townships, also proposes construction of interceptor sewers. The township program, including interceptor construction, has been favored by the Southwestern Illinois Metropolitan Area Planning Commission, official planners for the Gateway Council, and last week was approved by the advisory committee of the Gateway Council.

The Granite City Council has been reluctant to go along with the township sewer program because of the interceptor issue. The township sewers would tie in with the Granite City sewage treatment plant to dispose of sewage from the collector lines, with the townships paying for treatment on a fee basis.

Monday night's action by the council, however, indicates the city is ready to go along with the township idea of building the interceptors to eliminate any controversy which might affect potential grants for the city's secondary treatment program.

After Mayor Partney pointed out that the Gateway Council has not been recertified. Alderman Walter Nonn told the council:

"I have been against this (township use of Granite City treatment facilities) but the way things are now I think it is time that we got together on this township plan and see what we can get."

Alderman Thomas Boker remarked that "I think like Nonn that it's time we started getting together on this thing (the sewer programs). I believe it is time we called a meeting with the townships and started getting things straightened out."

Boker at first suggested that City Clerk Robert Stevens write a letter to arrange a meeting with the township officials, but Schuler pointed out that Juneau is the city's public engineer, and also the engineer for the township sewer program.

"I think he would be the logical person to arrange the meeting," Schuler suggested in making a motion that Juneau be instructed to arrange a meeting of city officials with the township group.

Annexation Plans Are Advanced in Meeting

A decision to proceed with plans for annexation of the Dream Villa No. 5 subdivision to the city of Granite City was reached in a meeting of approximately 35 persons at the Park District Recreation Building, Franklin and Amos avenues, Wendesday night.

A petition signed by most of the residents of the Dream Villa subdivision was presented at the meeting. Residents of the Gorbe subdivision also began circulation of a petition for annexation.

A separate meeting to consider annexation of Wilshire Manor is to be scheduled soon, it was reported.

TENT IS RAISED. The outdoor performing arts facility tent was raised Tuesday at SIU-SW by crewmen as commencement time approaches. The tent will receive more use from university events than ever bfor, according to Lyl Ward, assistant to the director of the University Center. In addition to the commencement June 11, a concert by British rock star Elton John is scheduled in the tent May 12 and the Spring Festival Concert will be May 20. The tent has been used in the past for the Mississippi River Festival summer concert season; plans are progressing for the Festival season July 8 through Aug. 19.

GC Steel Pollution Pact OK'd by State

By GARY SCHNEIDER
Press-Record Staff Writer

The Illinois Pollution Control Board Tuesday approved a settlement between Granite City Steel Co. and the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency for establishing a program to significantly reduce air pollution emissions from the local steel plant.

Meeting in Chicago Tuesday afternoon, the board voted unanimously to accept the pact agreed upon by the company and the EPA after more than 30 public hearings in Granite City and Chicago.

The settlement itself was the object of public hearings in Granite City April 12 and 13, conducted by the IPCB to determine if changes in the settlement should be made before it was approved.

Under the plan, the company is to invest $4,090,000 in pollution control equipment and is to establish a $150,000 scholarship fund for environmental studies at the University of Illinois at Champaign.

Must Post Bond

The EPA will require the posting of $3,670,000 in surety bond to guarantee completion of the program within specific deadlines. The total program is expected to be completed within four years.

Among the equipment the company has agreed to install is a coke oven charging system including a new automatic Larry car to place coal in the ovens under a partial vacuum to reduce emissions. The system will cost an estimated $2,250,000.

About $90,000 will be invested in spare coke oven doors and door seals and a maintenance program is to be followed to further reduce emissions from the coke oven batteries.

A $60,000 quench car water fogging system is to be installed to reduce emissions when the hot coke is transferred from the ovens to the quench tower.

At the quench tower, a system of baffles is to be installed to reduce the volume of water vapor that might contain coke dust. The cost of the baffles is $150,000.

A $110,000 excess blast furnace gas bleeder-burner stack is the major investment in equipment for the blast furnace operation.

Improvements to the sinter plant include a high energy wet gas scrubber for the main windbox for $1,300,000 and a $150,000 baghouse cleaner already installed to clean sinter breaker exhaust emissions.

Also agreed on is a set of rules for operation and maintenance work and for reporting progress and breakdowns to the EPA.

Maintenance rules call for periodic checks and work to maintain the efficiency of the emission control equipment at the coke ovens, blast furnaces, sinter plants, basic oxygen furnaces, blooming mill, hot strip mill and steam generating plant.

An expert for the company at the hearings here this month said that when the program is completed, emissions from the plant can be reduced as much as 90% and general pollution in Granite City would be reduced about 50%.

Film Cites Differing Generations, Outlook

Granite City Rotarians viewed a 35-minute film, "Generations," describing the "generation gap" as real due to deep differences in outlook by the young and old. Presented by Dale Kaeshoefer, Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. manager, the film urged contact and understanding, rather than isolation and conflict.

It was announced that about 600 attended the club's annual "chili day" last week. President A. H. Froemling presided and Dr. Elwood Ackerman reviewed plans for participation in district Rotary golf matches.

Stolen Car Hits Pole

The stolen car of Ozzie Patton, 74 Lee Wright Homes, Venice, was recovered after a group of juveniles drove it into a utility pole at Douglas Street and Line Alley in Venice at 10:20 p.m. yesterday. The pole broke off at the ground line. Witnesses said three or four youths ran from the vehicle following the accident.

Gateway in Accord With HUD; Recertified

An agreement under which the Housing and Urban Development Department will recertify the East-West Gateway Coordinating Council as the authorized coordinator of regional planning was reached yesterday after the Gateway Council approved a new schedule of guidelines required by HUD.

The U.S. threatened not to recertify the council due to dissatisfaction over a long-range land use plan. Yesterday's acceptance of new Gateway guidelines by HUD will renew the council's certification until Dec. 31, officials said.

The Gateway Council yesterday also gave final approval to plans for four highway improvement projects in the Quad-City area. They were among 27 Illinois regional highway projects presented for approval, and which highway officials hope will get under way within the next five years.

The Quad-City improvements include the four-lane expressway of Federal Aid Route 151 (Great River Road) from Niedringhaus avenue to Venice; improvement of Route 203 from the north city limits of Granite City to I-270 at Mitchell; construction of Maryville Road from Pontoon Road south to Highway 162; and construction of a viaduct at Main Street and McKinley Bridge which will take FA Route 151 over the railroad tracks.

Calls for Invitations

Henry S. Bieniecki, chairman of the Madison County Citizens Environmental Council, on Tuesday wrote County Board Chairman Nelson Hagnauer urging that he invite federal and regional development authorities to appear before the board to present their positions on zoning and land use.

Inter-City Baseball Season Opens Sunday

The bats of the Southwestern Illinois Inter-City Baseball League will start booming Sunday as the 1972 season opens, it was announced today by Ollie Miller, league president.

Single games this season will begin at 2 p.m. and double headers will start at 1 p.m.

Sunday openers will see Highland-Pierron at Glen Carbon against the American Legion team, Troy will play St. Mary's on the Third Street diamond in Madison and Molitar of Collinsville will play at Piasa.

Mercer team will open against Fairfax at a later date. The Machinist Union of East Alton has changed its name to Van's. It drew a bye.

League officials will meet at 8 p.m. Sunday at the Moonlight diamonds in Troy.

On Track Roster

Mark Twietmeyer of Granite City is on the track roster at Concordia Lutheran College, Ann Arbor, Mich.

Danville Cage Sta Signed by Cougars

Allen L. (Al) Greenlee, who shot a sensational 89% from the free throw line for Danville Junior College last season, has signed a leter of intent to enroll at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern this fall. Cougar cage coach Jim Dudley announced the signing.

The 6-4 Greenlee, who played his high school basketball at Chrisman High in Edgar County, averaged 19.9 points per game in prep play and pulled down 21 rebounds a contest. At Danville J. C., Greenlee shot a sensational .743 from the floor.

TERRY RIPKA VOLUNTEER. Granite City High School basketball star Ripka accepts a full four-year NCCA scholarship. He will join the Volunteers of the University of Tennessee in the fall. Watching the signing of the letter of intent are Don Deterding, left, Warrior basketball coach, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Ripka.

Ripka Accepts 4-Year Tennessee Scholarship

Terry Ripka, star basketball player for Granite City High School, has accepted a four year "full scholarship to the University of Tennessee at Knoxville.

Ray Mears, head basketball coach for the Tennessee Volunteers, arrived at Ripka's home Wednesday with the National Collegiate Athletic Association scholarship.

Coach Mears reviewed the details of the scholarship with Terry and his parents.

The NCAA scholarship which includes room, board, tuition, books, and even laundry, is estimated by Mears to be worth about $15,000.

Ripka ended his high school cage career this season with a total of 1,403 points. He holds the GCHS record for most points in one game, scoring 50 against Madison.

The leading scorer in the Southwestern Conference, Ripka averaged 27.4 points per game, and made the All-State team.

Warrior Coach Don Deterding remarked, "In all my years of coaching, Terry is the best shorter I have ever seen. He averaged 53% from the floor and 82% from the free-throw line."

The Volunteers finished their season this year with a 20-6 record and tied with the University of Kentucky for first place in the Southeastern Conference.

Night Racing Starts Tomorrow at Speedway

The first Friday evening race of the season will begin at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow at the Tri-City Speedway with super-sprint and late model stock car action on the half-mile clay oval.

The weekly events are scheduled to continue each Friday night until September when cooler weather forces a return to Sunday afternoon racing. Two Sunday races have been held, April 9 and last Sunday. A race set for April 16 was canceled due to a wet track.

Under the Friday evening schedule, time trials in both classes will begin at 7:30 p.m. with the first heat races to start at 8:30 p.m. The programs are expected to be concluded by 10 p.m. each Friday.

A full lineup of top name drivers are expected to compete, including Chuck Amati of Greenfield, Tenn., and Wib Spalding of Pontoon Beach, double feature winners this season.

Amati remains undefeated in the sprint cars, having won both features this season, and Spalding holds the same record in the late model stocks.

Others expected in the sprint lineup include Bill Utz of Sedalia, Mo. Bubby Jones of Danville, Jimmy Moughon of Springfield, Jerry Camfield of Argenta and Spalding.

A field of 35 super sprint cars and about 30 late model stocks is expected.

Bus Trip Open To Indy Trials

Area auto racing fans have been invited to join the St. Louis Auto Racing Fan Club on a trip to the Indianapolis Motor Speedway for the first day of Indy 500 time trials May 13.

Buses will leave St. Louis shortly after midnight and those on the tour will receive round-trip transportation, breakfast at the Indianapolis Speedway Motel, a reserved seat in the track penthouse and supper on the return trip.

Cots for the trip is $18 per person. Checks or money orders should be sent, with self-addressed and stamped envelopes, to Jim Mitchell, 4425 Robbins Mill Road, Florissant, Mo. 63033.

Trojans Lose 3-0 at Bethalto

The tennis Trojans of Madison High School lost at Bethalto 3-0 Tuesday.

Trojan Bill Fox was defeated in first singles by Gene Hand 6-2, 6-0 and Shawn Soles was downed by Ken Adams in second singles 6-0, 6-0.

Bill Weidner and Wayne Kopchak lost in doubles to brothers Chris and David Schmidt 6-3, 6-0.

Curt Bosworth, who has been off the team due to illness, is expected to return in time for a match at Waterloo today.

FOURTH TERM

Franklin D. Roosevelt was inaugurated to a fourth term as President of the United States on Jan. 20, 1945.

Smith Averts No-Hitter in Valmeyer Loss

Catcher Eddie Smith singled as the first batter up in the game and spoiled a no-hitter for Valmeyer's A. H. Rohlfing who held Venice High School hitless, the rest of the way in a 10-0 victory Tuesday at Valmeyer.

Five Venice errors helped shorten the game to five innings on the 10-run lead rule. Valmeyer scored in the first, second, fourth and fifth innings.

Danny Maurer hurled and was relieved in the fourth by J. B. Harmon who finished the game for the VHS Red Devils, now 1-2 for the season.

The Devils will host Bunker Hill today and will travel to Marissa tomorrow for single games.

Outboard Races Set for May 6-7

The first American Outboard Federation Gulf-Canadian outboard championship races are set for May 6-7. The race is one in a series of four to determine national champions in outboard racing.

The event, sponsored by Gravois Mills community and presented by the Kansas City Speedboat Association, will be held at Gravois Mills, Mo., on Highway 5 on the northern edge of the Lake of the Ozarks.

The championship will feature the professional division of the American Outboard Federation. Six classes will be run, designated by cubic inch displacement of the engine. Among competitors will be Billy Seebold, former Granite Citvan.

Warriors, Trojans Place 2nd in County Track Meet

As expected and feared, powerful Alton High School dominated the Madison County Track Meet at Highland Tuesday while Granite City High School clinched the second spot. Madison was second in the competition among the smaller schools to Triad.

Red division (larger schools) scores were Alton 95, Granite City 79, Collinsville 28 and Edwardsville 24. Green division (smaller schools), Triad 63, Madison 39, Roxana and Bethalto 36, Highland 31, Wood River 30 and Highland St. Paul 5.

Six records were broken and two others were tied during the competition including one for Granite City by Bob Kratz and one broken and one tied for Madison by Ed Chandler.

Kratz pole vaulted 13'5½" to top the old mark of 12'7" set last year by teammate Dave Bell. Bell equaled his record vault again Tuesday but it was only good for third.

Chandler bettered his 1970 record of :10.0 in the 100-yard dash by winning the event in :09.9. Chandler also ran the 220-yard dash in :22.5, equaling the record set by George Tyus of Madison in 1970.

Other firsts for the GCHS Warriors included a throw of 162'1¾" by Brad Hiles in the discus and a 120-yard high hurdles run by Rich Schooley in :15.9. Other Trojan firsts included a 440-yard dash by Emory Wilson in :51.8, and a 880-yard relay achievement of 1:33.6.

The Warrior relay teams were unable to keep pace with Alton's squads but earned second in both the 880-yard and mile relay events. Completing the 880-yard distance in 1:33 were Greg Becker, Stan Stajduhar, Schooley and William Arnold.

The mile relay squad, clocked at 3:33, consisted of Tom Stephens, Dale Williams, Dave Miller and Dave Carmody.

Other events in which Warrior trackmen placed high were: Discus—Jim Robbers, second, 147'. Shot put—Hiles, second, 50'9", Brad Weiss, third, 47'4". Two mile—Bryant, second. 440-yard dash—Becker, third, :52.7. 880-yard run—Tom Bull, third.

STRING OF TEAMMATES greets Cougar Dan Cole after the big senior blasted a solo home run in the seventh inning in the opening game of a double header against Greenville. The 370-foot shot was the first home run hit on the new SIU-SW field.

Cole Homer Ices Cougars' New Field Dedication Cake

Dan Cole blasted the first home run in Southwestern Illinois University - Southwestern's new Cougar field in the first game of a doubleheader against Greenville College yesterday.

The 370-foot shot in the seventh inning by the big senior first sacker was the difference as the Cougars edged Greenville 5-4 in the game and then came back to take a seven-inning nightcap 11-3.

The victories were appropriate as the Cougars dedicated the field in pre-game ceremonies with right-hander John C. Rendleman, SIU - SW president, throwing the first pitch.

Flying high, the Cougars stretched their winning streak to five games after defeating Washington University 6-3 Tuesday in St. Louis. They now have a 17-7-1 record.

Greenvilel was held to four hits in the first game as ace Don Rains of Granite City went most of way on the mound, with Ron Middleton taking over in the ninth. Roger Belsh of Granite City was the catcher.

The Cougars, with nine hits, came from behind with four runs in the last of the ninth inning.

Lefty Steve Malone scattered six hits and went all the way for SIU-SW in the nightcap. Reserve infielder Dave River accounted for three of Cougar hits and scored three runs as SIU-SW coasted with a 7-1 in the first, one in the second and seven in the fourth frames. Greenville rallied with three runs in the fifth. Tim Summers caught.

Outfielder Bob Graves collected four of 14 Cougar hits against Washington U. and southpaw Mike Dickey held the losing Bears to five hits in gaining his third victory in four decisions. The Bears took a 2-0 lead in the first inning but SIU-SW came back with four in the second and one in the fourth and seventh frames to get it. Summers worked behind the plate.

Lefty Stan "Sadie" Hawkins of Bethalto may get his first varsity starting chance in one of the two games against Indiana State of Evansville at the Cougar field starting at 1 p.m. today.

In Saturday's pair of games at MacMurray, Coach Roy Lee is expected to call on his two ace righthanders, Rains and Middleton, and Sunday's two hurlers against a visiting Arkansas State team will be up for grabs.

The games are crucial to SIU-SW's chances of receiving a third straight bid to the post-season National Collegiate Athletic Association midwest regional tournament.

The eight remaining games after this weekend are expected to be tough ones: four in two days at SIU-SW against the Big Ten Ohio Buckeyes on Friday and Saturday of next week, two more here against Western Illinois the following weekend and pair with Eastern Illinois University May 17 at Charleston to end the regular season.

Trojans Suffer, Drop Three More Ball Games

It was a poor week for Madison High School's baseball Trojans who lost three games—4-2 Monday at Lebanon, 9-7 Tuesday at Dupo and 8-2 yesterday at St. Paul of Highland.

In the action Wednesday, St. Paul collected nine hits while the Trojans were held to three hits. Each team committed three errors. Ron McLaughlin was the losing pitcher.

Highland had two big innings, scoring four runs in both the third and sixth innings.

The Trojan runs came in the top of the sixth as McLaughlin was safe on an error, Carl Turner singled and shortstop Carl Fonville singled.

It was the Trojans game going into the last of the seventh inning at Dupo but two runs edged them out.

Dupo led 6-5 in the top of the seventh when the Trojans scored two big runs, but it wasn't enough.

Jay Greer led Trojan hitters with two for two, a single and a triple, and walked twice.

Carl Fonville was the losing pitcher. He tripled.

Lebanon and Madison each produced five-hit performances Monday.

Trojan John Henke was the losing pitcher, fanning eight and walking three.

The Trojans scored in the fifth and sixth innings.

The season record for Madison is now 1-9. They play today at Livingston and will meet the only team they have defeated when they travel to Triad on Friday.

Hall-Smith Ceremony at Assembly of God Church

The wedding of Miss Debra Ann Smith, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Smith, 2801 Wayne Ave., and Ronald E. Hall of 9123E Torchlite Lane, Bel Ridge, Mo., was solemnized April 22, at the Community Heights Assembly of God Church, Faith and Buxton avenues.

Mr. Hall is a son of Mrs. Joan Schroeder of Bonne Terre, Mo.

The Rev. Eugene Cunningham heard the couple exchange their wedding vows, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, as they stood beneath a white wicker arch entwined with white pom pons. Large arrangements of white gladiolus and pom pons decorated the altar and white satin bows marked the pews.

Alan Bogovich presided at the organ for the bride groom, who sang "From This Day On." The selection was written by the best man, Rodney Marlow, especially for the wedding. He also sang "Something" and "Come To Me, My Love," the latter song composed by the groom.

Mr. Smith escorted his daughter down the white carpeted aisle and gave her in marriage. She chose a wedding gown of imported Chantilly lace designed with a fitted bodice and a skirt of tiered ruffles extending into a cathedral train.

Delicate ruffles, accented with sequins, trimmed the high neckline and cuffed the camelot sleeves. Her bouffant veil of bridal illusion was secured with a headpiece created with clusters of lace flowers centered with aurora borealis crystals and pearls. She carried a bouquet of white carnations tinted yellow, centered on a white Bible.

Maid of honor, Miss Mary Mitchell and bridesmaids, Miss Diane Malhereck, Miss Marilyn Martin, Miss Liese Schroeder, a sister of the groom and Misses Cathy and Tammy Smith, sisters of the bride, wore gowns in pastel shades of blue, lavender, green and pink.

Fashioned of silk organza, their frocks were designed with Empire bodices, round necklines and long sheer sleeves. A floral braid in colors to match the dresses encircled the high rise waist and cuffed the sleeves.

Each attendant wore a nose tip veil secured with an organza bow, and carried a white Bible topped with carnations in colors matching their gowns.

The little flower girl, Jan Perryman, a cousin of the groom, wore a frock similar to the attendants. She held a nosegay of yellow carnations.

Rodney Marlow served as best man with Ray Smith, the bride's brother, Donald Fraser, Ricky Perryman, a cousin of the groom and Bryan Statler, as groomsmen.

Seating the guests was Ricky Singleton, an uncle of the bride and Bobby Daughtery, the bride's cousin. Jeff Smith another brother of the bride, was the ringbearer.

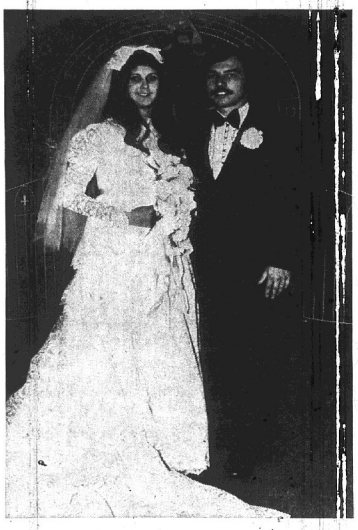

Mrs. Smith selected a dress of aqua blue crepe designed with long sleeves and a mandarin collar, complemented with a sleeveless coat accented in silver. Her corsage was made up of white carnations tipped blue.

The groom's mother, Mrs. Schroeder, was attired in a frock, also with long sleeves, fashioned of white double knit fabric embossed with metalic figures. She wore a pink tipped carnation corsage.

Miss Betty Singleton, a cousin of the bride, presided at the guest book and Miss Diane Daughtery, the bride's cousin, attended the gift table at a reception given at the American Legion Hall.

After a wedding trip to Hawaii, the newlyweds will make their home in Bel Ridge, Mo.

The bride is a student at Granite City High School. Her husband graduated from Desloge High School and St. Louis Christian College. He is employed by Eastern Airlines in St. Louis.

APRIL BRIDE. Mrs. William Whitley Bright, the former Miss Mary Ann Mlinarec, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mlinarec, 2541 Benton St., who was married at St. Joseph Roman Catholic Church.

Miss Mary Ann Mlinarec, William Bright Are Wed

Miss Mary Ann Mlinarec, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mlinarec, 2541 Benton St., and William Whitley Bright, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene W. Bright Jr. of Louisville, Ky., were united in marriage April 22 at St. Joseph Roman Catholic Church.

Wedding selections were furnished by Mrs. Cletus Judd, organist, who played "Theme From Romeo and Juliet," "We've Only Just Begun" and "One Hand, One Heart."

Large bouquets of blue and white flowers arranged at the altar and white satin bows marking the pews decorated the sanctuary for the one o'clock double ring ceremony performed by the Rev. Richard Chiola.

Mr. Mlinarec escorted his daughter down the white carpeted aisle and gave her in marriage. The bride selected a floor length gown of sata peau and Venise lace. The Empire bodice of Venise lace had a scooped neckline, edged in delicate lace beading.

Lace beading was repeated on the cuffs of the long full sleeves and trimmed a ruffled flounce at the hemline of the full skirt and the detachable chapel length train.

The former Miss Mlinarec wore a lace cloche embellished with seed pearls and crystals holding in place a silk illusion veil and she carried cascade bouquet of white roses and baby breath.

Miss Laura Massie was maid of honor and Miss Ruth Ann Diak, a cousin of the bride, Mrs. Bonnie Taylor of Louisville, Ky., sister of the groom, Miss Tracey Holy of North Riverside, Ill., and Mrs. Ann Osborn of Tuscaloosa, Ala., former roommates of the bride at the University of Alabama, were bridesmaids. Miss Lynn Diak, the bride's cousin, served as junior bridesmaid.

The attendants were identical formal length dresses created of pastel blue chiffon and white lace. Designed with an Empire bodice of white lace, their gowns featured square necklines and long full chiffon sleeves cuffed with a delicate lace.

They were large picture hats of blue spun nylon trimmed with white lace and blue ribbons, and each held a nosegay of blue and white painted daisies.

Stacie Goeddel, flower girl, wore a frock similar to the older attendants. She carried a basket of rose petals and was escorted down the aisle by Scott Wilcox, ringbearer. Both are cousins of the bride.

The groom chose Sewell Long of Louisville, Ky., as best man. Frank Mlinarec, the bride's brother, John Bates and Lamar Long, both of Montgomery, Ala., Robert Templeton of Louisville, Ky., and John Cornelius of Miami, Fla., were groomsmen.

Mrs. Mlinarec, mother of the bride, was attired in a street length dress of aqua polyester shantung with matching accessories. The groom's mother chose a turquoise cotton lace and shantung with accessories in the same shade. Both wore corsages of white cymbidium orchids.

Immediately following the ceremony a luncheon was given for the wedding party and out-of-town guests at the home of the bride. An evening reception was held at the VFW Hall in Granite City at 6 o'clock. The groom's parents were hosts at a rehearsal dinner on Friday night at Charlie's Restaurant.

The couple will reside in Granite City after a wedding trip to the Ozarks.

A graduate of Granite City High School, the bride is a senior at the University of Alabama where she is a member of Alpha Omicron Pi Sorority.

Mr. Bright was graduated from the University of Alabama and is now employed at American Steel Foundries. He is a member of Pi Kappa Phi Fraternity.

Out-of-town guests here for the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. Hood Miller of Gadsden, Ala., Miss Brenda Smart of Scottsboro, Ala., Miss Linda Nelson of Huntsville, Ala., Miss Nancy Maples of Birmingtion, Ala., Gary Osborn of Tuscaloosa, Ala., Mrs. Lorraine Long of Louisville, Ky., Ricky Bond of Meridian, Mis., and Herb Goldberg of Chicago.

Niedringhaus PTA Elects Officers

The April meeting of Niedringhaus School PTA began with a flag ceremony by Girl Scout Troop 275, Tuesday night.

Mrs. Jo Ann Dix led the troop and the girls participating were Susan Buente, Janis Morgan, Jamie Garrison, Jane Geggus, Ann Holder, Jolene Hough, Karen Macios and Anita Milton.

The invocation was offered by the Rev. Louis Brinker of Grace Baptist Church.

Sixth grade students, under the direction of Miss Gayle Hamilos, presented a musical program, entitled "Welcome To The Theatre," in which they performed vaudeville numbers.

As they entered the gymnasium, the students sang "Another Opening, Another Show." Steven Gaumer, the narrator, welcomed everyone to the theatre and Becky Sage was the card girl. "Alexander's Ragtime Band" was sung by the group.

Joe Juneau and Robert Longey, portraying gangsters, sang "Brush Up Your Shakespeare." Two of George M. Cohan's songs were presented, "Give My Regards to Broadway," performed by the whole group, and "Yankee Doodle Boy," sung by Danny Hunnicutt. "After the song, "Mandy," Joe Reed and Paul Edwards presented "an old umbrella routine."

Aaron Wuehler portrayed Al Jolsen singing "Sonny Boy." An old Ziegfield number, "A Pretty Girl is Like a Melody," was sung as about 45 girls walked among the audience modeling large picture hats.

Patti Cook portrayed Fanny Brice singing "Second Hand Rose." The finale was "There's No Business Like Show Business."

The treasurer's report was given by Mrs. Mary Fryntzko. Mrs. Jo Ann Dix, picnic chairman, gave a progress report on the picnic, to be held at Wilson Park May 26, and announced the PTA will furnish 60 cents in tickets to each student.

PTA president, Loren Davis, introduced the 1972-73 slate of officers and they were elected by acclamation. The officers were installed in an impressive ceremony by Miss Marguerite Barker. Each was presented a carnation by Mrs. Elizabeth Edwards.

The unit's new officials are: Arthur Conary, president; Gary Crane, first vice-president; Mrs. Clementine Wadlow, second vice-president; Mrs. Sharon Aleksandrian, treasurer; and Mrs. Gigi Kostoff, secretary.

Davis was presented with a past president's pin by Mrs. Edwards. Newly installed officers and the retiring officers will meet May 8 in the school cafeteria at 7 p.m.

Davis was presented with a Niedringhaus School at the national PTA convention in Chicago this weekend, it was announced.

Refreshments were served by the fifth and sixth grade room mothers, Mesdames Dodi Cionko, Dix, Wilma Ficor, Betty Forshee, Mary Fryntzko, Shirley Morgan and Irma Wuehler.

Rev. Chitwood Is Revival Speaker

The Rev. Joe Chitwood of Nashville, Ind., is the evangelistic speaker at revival services at Central Free Methodist Church, 22nd and State streets, which began yesterday and will continue through Sunday evening.

The minister has held pastorates in Illinois and for 10 years has traveled as an evangelist in the Free Methodist Church. In addition to his preaching, the Rev. Chitwood is a baritone singer and an accomplished musician. He plays the piano, accordian and various string instruments.

Services are being held nightly at 7 o'clock, the host pastor, the Rev. James Eldridge, announced.

Troop 9 Scouts Receive Awards

Boy Scout Troop 9 of Kirkpatrick Homes held a potluck dinner and awards ceremony Monday evening at the housing project's recreation center.

David Morgan, executive director of the Granite City Housing Authority, presented the following awards:

Tenderfoot to Gary Caughron, Jeff Wagner, Jon Null and Glen Valle; second class, Marcus Law, Jack Crowell and Kenny Knotts; first class, Bill Null, John Valle, Howard Richardson, Danny Caughron and Harry Painter; and Star award to Donald Wren, George Smith and Wayne Hehle.

A special guest at the meeting was Mrs. Ruth Thornton of Madison.

'ADVENTURES' TO BE CUB LEADERS' THEME

A roundtable meeting for Cub Scout leaders is to be held May 9, it was decided at a committee meeting in the home of Mrs. Pat Foote, 112 Granville St., Venice. Theme for the month will be "Backyard Adventures," and the meeting will be held at the Venice Recreation Center, with Cub Pack 107 as host.

An obstacle course and many ceremonies will be shown. Those with arts and crafts to display are to bring them to the meeting.

The birthday of one of the committeemen, Mrs. Nadene Taylor, was observed and Mrs. Foote served refreshments to those named and Mrs. Dor Cathey, Mrs. Vee Throne and Ron Luebben, roundtable commissioner.

Fire Damages Home

Items on top of a space heater ignited and caused minor damage to the home of Curtis Hampton, 150a S. Sixth St., Venice, Monday. Venice firemen were on the scene from 6:25 to 6:40 p.m.

Shower Honors Miss Kukarola

Miss JoAnn Kukarola, a May bride-elect, was complimented at a bridal shower held at the Moose Hall, 19th and Adams streets.

Co-hostesses were Mrs. Pat Aleman, Mrs. Diane Vivod and Miss Pam Cruse, who used a mint green and white color motif in the decoratins and party favors.

Games were played and prizes were awarded. Many gifts were received by the honoree.

Miss Kukarola, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Kukarola, 2028 Cleveland Blvd., will be married May 20 to David Cruse, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Cruse, 2853 Washington Ave.

Evening Etude Club Guest Talent Night

Members and guests of the Evening Etude Music Club enjoyed a program of music and dance during their annual "guest talent night," held at Central Christian Church.

Miss Rosemary Kabureck, president, served as master-of-ceremonies and introduced the performing guests. Opening the program was a clarinet quartet, Miss Tafra Hogan, Miss Pat Cottrell, Miss Pam Hassler and Miss Pat Hunsinger, "Quartet No. 1" by Endresen.

A tap dance, "Bicycle Built for Two," featured Miss Connie Robbins, Miss Jennifer Vaughn, Miss Karen Spencer and Miss Marquita French. Miss Melissa Linder presented a vocal solo, "The Desert Song."

"Sketches in Color" by Robert Starer was a piano solo performed by Neil Seymour. A ballet from the "Nutcracker Suite" was the presentation of Miss Karen Stawar, and a baritone horn solo, "King of the Deep," was played by James Blackwell of Prather Junior High School.

Piano solos, "Minuet in G" by Bach and "Bubble Gum" by Francis Light, were performed by Miss French. An oboe solo, "Concerto in D Major" by Albinoni, was given by Miss Elizabeth Ledbetter.

"Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring" by Bach was an organ solo by Miss Lisa Groothuis.

Completing the program was a lecture demonstration of the musical instrument, the "rebec," by Mrs. Esther Vasileff. It is a stringed instrument played with a bow, and is similar to a violin.

It was primarily played during the Middle Ages. Mrs. Vasileff performs locally with a group of Bulgarian folk musicians.

Baskets of spring flowers adorned the refreshment table. Evening Etude members serving on the arrangements committee were Mesdames Jane Kozielek, Barbara Bryan and Lois Bilbrey and Miss Elsie Maylath.

Other members attending the musicale were Mesdames June Barton, June Branding, Kathleen French, Yvonne Lipchik and Judy Owens.

The May hostess will be Mrs. French, 2255 Cleveland Blvd.

A son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wright, 731 Twenty-eighth St., the serviceman is stationed in Blytheville, Ark.

Both young people were graduated from Granite City High School. The bride-elect is a senior student at SIUSW where she is majoring in elementary education.

The engaged couple will be united in marriage June 10 at the First Baptist Church, 21st Street and Delmar Avenue.

Cottey College, Chapter HT Topic

Comments on "What Cottey College Means To Me," written by girls attending the Missouri college, provided the program at a meeting of Chapter HT of the PEO Sisterhood Monday afternoon held in the home of Mrs. R. E. Backs, 17 Bermuda Lane.

Mrs. E. G. Marshman presented the program and explained that Cottey College, in Nevada, Mo., is an all girl's college with an enrollment of 400 students. The school is maintained with funds from national PEO chapters.

"The college is a full 2-year accredited college with a strong academic program in music and science," Mrs. Marshman said. "School authorities proudly announced recently they have the distinction of almost 100 per cent of their students continuing their education after leaving Cottey," the speaker added.

Among the 400 students are girls from every state in the United States, as well as Canada. Twenty students represent foreign countries, Mrs. Marshman noted.

The second part of the program was given by Mrs. A. F. Buente who showed slides and gave a narration on the PEO Retirement Home located in Knoxville, Ill. The home is completely maintained by the Illinois PEO chapters, she said.

Mrs. H. R. Fischer, 3725 Madison Ave., will entertain the group at its next meeting.

Phi Eta Welcomes New Member

Mrs. Donna Yehling was welcomed as a new member of Phi Eta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority at Tuesday night's meeting in the home of Mrs. Sharon Burnett, 2515 Wshington Ave.

Mrs. Yehling and Mrs. Beverly Beal will officially be inducted into the chapter at a pledge ritual and dinner meeting May 23, to take place at Charlie's Restaurant.

Mrs. Cathy Patrick will receive her "ritual of the jewel" pin at the same meeting.

The opening ritual was given by Mrs. Cheryl Pounds, chapter president, who announced plans for the mother's day tea at the Heritage House Restaurant in St. Louis. She said special gifts will be presented to the mothers.

Members were reminded to bring white elephant gifts to the May 9 meeting to be used at an auction, the chapter's current fund raising project. A home products party followed the business session conducted by Mrs. Joyce Barnes. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Burnett and Mrs. Cathy Warfield.

The hostess served a dessert luncheon to those named and to Mesdames Claudine Reinhardt, Brenda Thompson, Ellen Wilson, Tina Buente and guests, Mesdames Barbara Kennerly, Pat Knollman, Anita Barry and Venida Hill.

Future events announced include "Bonds For Braces," a past masters dinner, at which members will serve, and a "guest night", at the Alton Bethel.

Refreshments were served after the meeting in the dining room, where Miss Brokaw was honored on her birthday.

1972 SECRETARY OF THE YEAR is Mrs. Charlsie Vunovic, who received the award at a Secretaries Day luncheon Wednesday at the Stadium Club in St. Louis, in conjunction with National Secretary Week. Shown with the honoree, left to right, is Paul Reed of Dixie Mills Co.; Elroy Rule of Our Lady of the Snows, the current Booss f the Year, and Larry Sidener of Sidener Supply Co. Both Reed and Sidener have held the Boss of the Year in past years.

Eagles Auxiliary Plans Election

The Eagles Auxiliary planned an initiation and election of officers for the May meeting, during a monthly business session held Tuesday evening at the Eagles Aerie on Madison Avenue.

Mrs. Nancy Mullen, president, conducted the meeting, and Mrs. Marge Hall announced those to be initiated are Mrs. Margaret Scott, Mrs. Maggie Metcalf and Mrs. Irene Reinhardt.

The slate of officers nominated for the coming year are: Mrs. Brenda Rickert, president; Mrs. Delores Sanders, vice-president; Mrs. Billie Schuler, chaplain; Mrs. Judith Mills, conductor; Mrs. Leona Delaloye, treasurer; Mrs. Betty Lyons, inside guard; Mrs. Beverly Sponeman, outside guard; Mrs. Stella Miller, trustee; Mrs. Florida Batson, convention delegate and Mrs. Angie Buehler and Mrs. Verna Hornyak, alternate delegates.

The president Mrs. Mullen reported that the Granite City Eagles ritual team will conduct a district meeting May 7 in East St. Louis. She added the annual "Mothers' Day" dinner, hosted by the Eagles Lodge 1126, will take place May 9. A dinner will be served at 6:30 p.m.

Members also were reminded to contact Mrs. Hall immediately if they wish to attend the Eagles convention in Chicago, June 15-18.

The special prize was won by Mrs. Helen Lipchik and a white elephant gift, donated by Mrs. Stella Miller, was won by Mrs. Dottie Schubert.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Theresa Danco, Mrs. Opal Cain and Mrs. Lipchik.

TV Set Missing

Wesley Chronister, 2940 Myrtle Ave., reported at 12:20 a.m. Wednesday that a portable television set was missing from his home. There was no forced entry.

Kathy Richards Shower Honoree

A pre-wedding shower honoring Miss Kathy Richards was given in conjunction with a family reunion this week in the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Bob McCall, of East Alton.

The hosts served dinner to 45 guests at a table decorated in pink, white and yellow and centered with a large arrangement of spring flowers.

Miss Richards, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Richards, 1716 Spring Ave., will marry Dale McGuire on June 2 at St. Margaret Mary Roman Catholic Church.

The prospective groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence McGuire of Rural Route 1, Granite City.

6 Chapters Mark 41st Anniversary

The Granite City chapters of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority celebrated the 41st anniversary of the organization's founding at a banquet given last evening at the Flaming Pit in Edwardsville. Members attending represented six local chapters.

Mrs. Marty Herman led the renewal of the ritual pledge and acted as toastmistress for the evening. Mrs. Ellen Curtis was selected to present a special message from the sorority's international headquarters in Kansas City.

In addition to the banquet, the sorority's traditional ceremonies were observed and the history of local chapters was reviewed. New members were welcomed into the organization.

Mrs. Herman announced the first chapter in the sorority was formed 41 years ago in Abilene, Kansas. There are now approximately 10,500 chapters and 225,000 members in the United States, Canada and 23 foreign countries.

Installation of new city council officers was held with the retiring president, Mrs. Delores Dortch, officiating.

After the dinner entertainment was provided by Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Bradshaw and Mr. and Mrs. John Galloway who sang songs in harmony.

Warriors Win 2, Bow to East Side

The Granite City High School baseball Warriors downed Columbia 10-5 Monday and iced Belleville East 6-1 Tuesday but were tripped by East St. Louis 6-5 Wednesday.

GCHS slammed nine hits while John Stanton held Columbia to one hit in the Monday tilt at Wilson Park.

Stanton had been out of action with an arm injury for the past two weeks.

Warrior Jerry Duncan was two-for-three at bat, belting a double and a triple and scored two Warrior runs. Steve Burdge was one-for-two, walked twice and scored three runs. Bill Parks and Jack Scarborough each tagged doubles.

The scoring went for GCHS 2-4-0-0-3-1; and Columbia 1-1-0-2-0-1-0.

Three runs in each of the fourth and fifth frames iced the game for the Warriors in hosting Belleville East.

Vic Reznack, on the mound for the Warriors, fanned nine and walked one, earning his third win against two losses.

Scarborough led off the fourth innning with a single, stole second, advanced to third on a wild pitch and came home on a single by Parks. Duncan then singled and Parks came around on a center field error. Tom Vrenick singled Duncan home.

James Forrester led off the fifth with a double, followed by singles by Scarborough, Tim Lyerla and Parks, and Lyerla scored on a throwing error.

After winning their first two games of the week GCHS tasted defeat in East St. Louis.

Errors lost the game for the Warriors as the first five runs, three in the third and two in the fourth, for the Flyers were unearned. The winning run in the fifth was earned.

The Flyers were held to four hits and the Warriors collected eight but committed four errors.

The Warriors scored one run in the first inning and four in the top of the third to take a 5-0 lead. But the Flyers came back with three in the third, two in the fourth and one in the fifth innings.

"Our defense was bad, real bad," Coach Gale Garbe lamented.

The Warrior runs in the third frame began when Brett Champion led off with a single, Stanton sacrificed and was safe on an error, Forrester singled, Burdge singled Champion home, Lyerla filed to score Stanton home, and Parks doubled to send Forrester and Burdge over the plate.

The Warriors, now 8-6, play host to Belleville Althoff today will travel to Alton Friday will play a double header at 11 a.m. Saturday at Normandy.

Golfers Win Two, Drop Meet to State Champs

GCHS golfers easily downed Lebanon and Assumption in rounds on the road Monday and Tuesday but were stopped cold by Belleville West, the defending state champion, in a match on the front nine holes at Arlington Heights yesterday.

Lebanon fell 172 to 192 Monday at Lebanon and on the Fairmont links Tuesday, the Warriors downed Assumption 153 to 167.

Belleville West, which normally never utilizes more than 150 strokes for nine holes on any area course, had an off day yesterday, finishing with 160, but the Warriors, apparently in awe of the state champion, had one of their worst days of the season at Arlington, countnig 174 strokes.

Scores for each Warrior Monday, Tuesday and yesterday were: Gary Zimmer, 45, 37, 40; Mark Speer, 43, 35, 44; Bruce Lattimore, 45, 41, 46; Rick Bohnenstiehl, 43, 40, 47; Mike Willis, 43, 43, 47, and Norman Lazaroff, 47, 44, 51.

Jack Egles carded 43 Monday and 44 yesterday but did not play Tuesday.

The Warriors will travel to Alton for a dual match today.

Carl Macios New Nameoki Auditor; Budget Approved

By VALERIE EVENDEN
Press-Record Staff Writer

Nameoki Township auditors approved a total 1972-73 appropriation ordinance of $316,046, including a $48,500 road and bridge fund budget, and appointed Carl Macios, 78 Cambridge Drive, to the town board, at their meeting Monday night.

Board members also rehired township officials and approved appointment to the boards of two street lighting districts.

Macios, 37, who serves as president of the Granite City School Board, was appointed to complete the unexpired term of Robert Beedle, who resigned March 31. He was sworn into office by Town Clerk Douglas Teetor and assumed a seat on the board prior to the start of the regular meeting Monday.

Trustees Sworn In

Also sworn in were Edward Greer, a trustee of the Miracle Manor-Bellemore Place Street Lighting District, and Al Balos, a trustee of the State Park Place Lighting District. Both men are incumbent trustees, whose appointments expire this year.

Macios, a native of Granite City and a lifelong resident, is a plant engineer at McDonnel-Douglas Aircraft Corp., in St. Louis County.

He is a graduate of Granite City High School and the Missouri School of Mines and Metallurgy at Rolla. He is married and the father of six children.

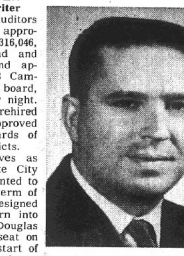

Salaries Remain Same

Compensation for the supervisor of general assistance was fixed at $3,900 a year (same as 1971-72) and the treasurer's salary was set at $979 annually (also matching last year's figure).

A per diem allowance of $25, authorized for the highway commissioner, also remains the same and is payable only on the days the commissioner is engaged in duties of his office, Whitsell said.

William W. Schooley was rehired as township attorney at a monthly fee of $250 and as attorney for the township road and bridge district at a $1,000 annual fee.

Retained as auditor for township funds was the firm of Ralph Curry & Associates. Fees were set at $2,000 for the town and general assistance funds and $700 for the road and bridge fund.

GS School Girl Takes Overdose, Hospitalized

A Granite City High School girl took an overdose of drugs, fell asleep in class at 9:55 a.m. Wednesday and was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital where she was admitted for observation. A blood test was taken.

At the hospital she told police that when she arrived at school at 8:10 a.m., she was met in the hall by two girls who asked if she wanted to buy six pills (downers—yellow jackets) at three for 90 cents.

She said she bought all six and took them at the same time. Police and school authorities are investigating.

Resolution on Land Plan, Project Tabled

The East-West Gateway Coordinating Council Board yesterday tabled a resolution sought by Leo A. Drey and Henry S. Bienlecki to "strongly recommend that the Madison County Board give the land use plan for Madison County a fair and adequate public hearing and evaluation."

The resolution further would have urged delay of a 770-acre development project pending study o fits "impact on the Gateway region." It would have alleged the possibility of "severe flooding problems for areas, located south of such development, namely, the Counties of St. Clair, Monroe, St. Louis and Jefferson and the City of St. Louis.

Township Passes Animal Ordinance, Sets Clinics

Pet owners in Nameoki Township are being urged to have their animals innoculated against rabies during two public clinics set this Saturday at Long Lake Fire Hall, 4113 Pontoon Road, and the following Saturday, May 6, at the Nameoki Town Hall, 4250 Highway 162.

In related action Monday night, the Nameoki Township Board of Auditors suspended the rules and passed an animal control ordinance which combines regulations and penalties governing ownership of pets and abuse of animals.

Township Supervisor Louis Whitsell, in announcing the rabies clinics at Monday's meeting, said animals without rabies tags will be picked up by the township humane officers.

Innoculation Costs $4

Both clinics will take place from 2:30 to 4 p.m. under the supervision of Dr. Leland Holt, Whitsell said. Both dogs and cats may be taken for inoculation. Shots cost $4 per animal.

A rabies clinic is scheduled in May for pets whose owners live in State Park Place area of the township, Whitsell advised. A date has not yet ben set, he added.

Violation of the new animal control ordinance can bring penalties of $5 to $50 for each offense. The bill covers cruelty and abandonment of animals, permitting dangerous or vicious animals to run at large and impounding dogs caught running loose without tags.

In addition to the rabies tag, pet owners are required to purchase dog tags from Township Assessor Joseph Cohan. Dogs picked up without collars and tags will be considered strays under the new ordinance and impounded in a fenced area near the township offices.

Impounded animals are then released to the Madison County Rabies Control Division, Whitsell explained. A notice describing the animal, whether or not it is collared and tagged, the date of impounding and disposition will be posted at the township office, the supervisor said.

A joint agreement between the village of Pontoon Beach and township officials relating to a cooperative rabies control program currently is under study and is expected to be signed shortly.

Whitsell asked the auditors to review a sketch of a larger dog pen to be constructed behind the township office. The present enclosure is too small to hold several animals at one time and is suitable only for overnight detention, he noted. Specific plans for a dog shelter will be presented at a later metting.

Man Exposes Self

A man in an auto approached a woman and her son, 2, as they left Rode Park, asked if she wanted a ride and exposed himself, she reported at 1:15 p.m. Tuesday. She said the man had been seen in the area of the park previously. He was described as being 24 or 25, 6 feet, 170 pounds, dark brown hair, acne pits in the face and wearing black trousers, a white turtleneck sweater and a red windbreaker.

GC Scuba Team Aids In Finding Victims

Nine members of the Bubblemasters Civil Defense Underwater Recovery Team of Granite City took part in the search for victims in the boating accident this week that claimed the lives of two men and three children at Frank Holten State Park lake at Centreville.

Working in conjunction with divers from the Cahokia Scuba Sharks, O'Fallon Underwater Recovery Squad and the Cahokia Civil Defense Underwater Recovery Team, the local men reported to the scene immediately upon an alert call received here about 5:30 p.m. Sunday.

Local divers engaged in the recovery operations were Vance Weiss, Ed Duffin, Whitey Morrison, Don Digralimo, Fred Sarrach, Bud Finley, Mike Henderson, Phil Lamb and Bill Brannam.

Dee Adams, Bubblemasters president, said three bodies were recovered during the time the local divers were searching.

Drowned in the accident were Theresa Cantrell, 9, Tina Summers, 12, both of East St. Louis, Cynthia White, 9, Charles Finley, 30 and Fremont Clayton Jr., 48, all of St. Louis.

Clayton drowned after wading out from the shore in an attempt to rescue the six, who were in a boat when it overturned about 100 feet from the shoreline.

Two people rescued were Paul White, the father of Cynthia, and Cynthia Summers, 13, sister of Tina.

Assessment of Personal Property for '72 Begins

Assessment of personal property for the 1972 tax year, for which taxes will be payable in 1973, was begun this week by the office of, James Barton, Granite City township assessor.

Most personal property assessments will be extended on the basis of records for the 1971 year, with voluntary assessment schedules accepted from persons who wish to file them at the assessor's office.

New personal property assessments also are being made by the offices of John Brdicka in Venice township, Joseph Cohan in Nameoki township and O. R. Reeves in Chouteau township.

Barton siad he has no plans to mail assessment schedules to all Granite City taxpayers since the 1971 records will show adequately the property schedules for residential households. Since one auto and household furnishings are exempt in each household, the only personal property scheduled for most homes is that of a second, or more, autos.

The Illinois state registration of auto licenses will be checked as another means of verifying the ownership of a second auto in each instance, Barton said.

Business schedules are being taken for new businesses and office clerks will assist taxpayers in filling out these schedules at the assessor's office at 2037 State St. The office is open from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily Monday through Friday.

Recorder, Tapes Stolen

Kathy Carter, 4049 Bruene Ave., reported at 9:05 a.m. Wednesday that a $70 tape recorder and eight tapes valued at $40 were stolen from her auto parked on a lot at 2107 Edison Ave. Entry was gained by breaking the left wing window.

Edward Kellogg is Kiwanis Speaker

Edward Kellogg, executive vice-president of the Tri-Cities Chamber of Commerce, spoke at Monday night's dinner meeting of the Kiwanis Club on the subject of Leadership in the Chamber of Commerce.

"The first Chamber of Commerce was formed in New York City 200 years ago and the Granite City organization started in 1940," Kellogg noted.

During his speech, Mr. Kellogg gave reasons why professional and businesmen should become members of the Chamber. He noted that they are members of the community, doing business in the area and share in the prosperity.

"The Chamber has many services available to the small businman who becomes a member," he said. One of the most important may be that he and his employes may join in the Blue Cross and Blue Shield insurance plan," Kellogg added.

Among the other services offered the community by the Chamber are the employment and labor information, products and company lists; tourist information and Better Business reports.

A new member, Joseph R. Dittrich, was introduced during the meeting. He is co-owner of Dittlon Installation Co., which installs aluminum windows.

Attempted Burglary

A lock was pried off of a storage cage at the home of Wesley D. Parrish, 212 Illini Apartments, in an attempted burglary during the night, it was reported at 6:30 a.m. Tuesday. The intruder was spotted and was described as being 20 to 25 with medium length dark brown hair, full brown beard, 6 feet tall and wearing black trousers and a black windbreaker.

Door Broken

The side door of the James Walker Laundromat, Market and State streets, Venice, was broken in an apparent break-in Tuesday night but owners reported no signs of theft or vandalism inside the building. Police were notified of the broken door at 7:10 a.m. yesterday.

Transportation Seminar Will Be Rescheduled

A seminar program on international transportation which was cancelled yesterday will be rescheduled next fall, according to the Illinois Department of Business and Economic Development.

The seminar, co-sponsored by the business and economic department and the Tri-City Regional Port District, was to have been held at the Round Table Restaurant near Collinsville, but was called off because many of the panelists were to be in Washington, D. C., for the day.

School Bus Struck

A School Transportation Inc. bus, driven by Dorothy L. Mayes, 56 Lee Wright Homes, Venice, was struck from the rear by the car of Edgar Hill, East St. Louis, in the 200 block of McCambridge Avenue in Madison at 3:30 p.m. Tuesday. No damage was reported.

Sen. Vadalabene Files Report of Income, Assets

State Senator Sam M. Vadalabene (D-Edwardsville) has released the details of his 1971 income and a statement of his assets.

For 1971, the joint return of Senator Vadalabene and his wife, Mary, showed gross income of $25,230.76 of which $17,500 was salary from the state. Interest on the disposition of residential property amounted to $1,536.83.

Other income included $726.17 interest from the First Federal Savings and Loan of Edwardsville; $212.16 interest from Edwardsville National Bank and Trust; $104.05 interest from the State Bank of Virden; commissions of $1,083.77 from the W. C. Eilers Insurance Agency; $22.40 from the Wabash Investment Company; interest from the Bank of Edwardsville $390.37; interest from U. S. Bonds $125; income from Sam's Insurance Company $3,430.01 and an honorarium from the Madison County Superintendent of Schools of $100 for participation in a conference.

Senator Vadalabene's assets total $83,222.37. This includes $28,000 from the home in which he lives and mortgage balance for the residence which he has sold. He lists two cars with a value total of $2,500. Other assets, as of Dec. 31, 1971, include a U. S. Government Bond of $5,000; savings in banks totaling $36,581.16; stock in Wabash Life Insurance Co. totaling $1,179; stock in the Nathan Hale Investment Co. $200; stock in State Bank of Virden $360.

His present balance in the General Assembly Retirement System is $5,322.50, and in the State Employes Retirement System, $4,079.71.

Tryouts Next Week For 'Wizard of Oz'

Try-outs for the East Bank Players' summer presentation —"The Wizard of Oz"—will be held Monday and Tuesday at the Croation Hall, 1002 Madison Ave., Madison, it was announced today by Norma Mendoza who will direct the show.

Audition sessions on both days will take place between 4 and 6 p.m., with persons trying out for singing roles asked to bring their own sheet music, Mrs. Mendoza said.

The children's classic will feature a "large number of youthful cast members," the director explained, noting that an afternoon rehearsal schedule is planned for the young participants.

Adult roles in "Oz" include the "Tin Woodsman," "Scarecrow," "Cowardly Lion," "Glinda, the Good Witch," "Wicked Witch of the West," "Auntie Em," "Witch of the North," "Soldier with Green Whiskers" and, of course, the "Wizard."

Mrs. Mendoza noted that teenagers also may audition for the adult roles.

Officials of the Quad-Cities' amateur theatrical company stress that any area resident is invited to tryout for a part in the show.

"Our group is a community theatre organization and we welcome everyone interested in this type of program," Mrs. Mendoza said.

Heart Association Annual Meet Opens

Following the scientific session, the annual meeting of the Illinois Heart Association will begin at noon tomorrow and conclude the following afternoon.

Dr. Gordon K. Moe, Director of Research at Masonic Medical Research Laboratory in Utica, N. Y. was open

N. Y. will open the session today with a talk on Electrophysiology of the Myocardial Cell." A lecture by Dr. Kenneth Rosen, Associate Professor of Medicine at Chicago's University of Illinois School of Medicine, on "Electrophysiology of the Conduction System," will follow.

Boat Vandalized

Vandals damaged the boat of Johnny Flowers, 1004 Greenwood St., Madison, at Flowers' home Tuesday night, the owner told police at 7:10 a.m. yesterday. The canvas boat cover was slashed, the steering cables to the motor broken and the upholstery cut, Flowers reported. He also said several bolts were removed from the motor mounting, apparently in an attempt to steal the motor.

Diverse Summer Study Offered by McKendree

McKendree College in Lebanon will offer such diverse subjects as an archaeological dig and a tour of Appalachia in its summer school schedule this year, according to Dean Emerial Owen.

The archeological dig will be conducted in cooperation with Southern Illinois University at a site near Wood River. Only three students will be accepted for the course, which begins June 19 and ends Aug. 28, and carries 1½ units of credit, or the equivalent of six semester hours.

Two sociology seminars on Appalachia will be held during the regular June 12-June 28 summer school. More information is available from the director of admissions at the college.

Public Notice 34

MOBILE HOME PRIVILEGE TAX ORDINANCE

STATE OF ILLINOIS) ) SS COUNTY OF MADISON)

WHEREAS, the County of Madison has previously adopted the "Mobile Home Park Code, Madison County, Illinois" which, in the matter of license fees, is not in compliance with "an act to provide for, license, and regulate mobile homes and mobile home parks and repeal an Act named herein," same being Public Act No. 71-1472; and,

WHEREAS, said Public Act provides for the imposition of a privilege tax in lieu of an ad valorem tax:

NOW THEREFORE, in order to reconcile the differences in the Mobile Home Park Code of Madison County, Illinois, and to substitute a privilege tax in lieu of the ad valorem tax, BE IT ORDAINED BY THE MADISON COUNTY BOARD OF SUPERVISORS that:

1. The licensing fee as set out in the Mobile Home Park Code of Madison County, Illinois, Section 2.02(c), is hereby amended to provide a county license fee of Fifty ($50.00) Dollars per year effective July 1, 1972. Such county license fee shall not exempt the mobile home park licensee from any State license or fees as provided in Section 3 of Public Act No. 71-1472.

2. No ad valorem tax shall, after July 1, 1972, be collected from the owner of any occupied mobile home located in Madison County. In lieu thereof, the mobile home owner shall pay a privilege tax to the Treasurer of Madison County computed in the following manner:

(a) The County Board does hereby determine and establish a tax rate of fifteen (15c) cents.

(b) The County Treasurer of Madison County, through the office of License Investigator, shall multiply the number of square feet of floor space contained in such mobile home times the tax rate as set above.

(c) The County Treasurer shall enter such sum in his records as the annual tax of such mobile home for the privilege of occupying the same.

3. Each mobile home park shall be provided with a custodian's office and each mobile home entering such park shall be assigned to a site, given a copy of the park's rules and regulations according to the prescribed form. Such registration shall include the name and address of the owner and every occupant of such mobile home, and the floor space contained in such mobile home, and such other requirements as may be required by State law. The register shall be available at all times for inspection by all law enforcement officers.

4. The owner of every inhabited mobile home located in this County shall, thirty (30) days before June 1, 1972, file with the County Treasurer a mobile home registration form containing the information specified in Section 13 of Public Act No. 71-1472. If a registration form is accompanied by a receipt for taxes paid for the current tax year pursuant to this Act, no further privilege tax shall be imposed for the remainder of the current tax year. The annual billing date is hereby established as July 1 of each year, and if any mobile home is initially harbored after such annual billing date then the County Treasurer shall reduce such tax as may be due by one-twelfth (1/12) for each month that has passed since said annual billing date; and, provided further the mobile home harbored after the first day of such month shall be considered to have been harbored for the entire month for the purpose of this section. Thereafter the County Treasurer shall bill such tax on the first day of July of each year. Such tax shall be due and payable in thirty (30) days after the receipt of same.

5. The County Treasurer shall distribute such taxes to the local governments within the boundaries in which such mobile homes are located in the same proportion as the property tax is collectable for each such government in the prior year.

6. Any owner-occupant of a mobile home who is 65 years of age or older and who has an annual net income as provided in Article 2 of the "Illinois Income Tax Act" effective August 1, 1969, as amended, of $4,000 or less, shall be required to pay the privilege tax provided by this ordinance at the rate of ten cents (10c) per square foot. The above income shall be the total of all occupants of such mobile home, and in the case of a married couple, if either is over the age of 65 years, they both shall come within this exclusion. Such enforcments shall be the duty of the County Treasurer and/or the License Investigator. Nothing herein shall be construed to include the State Parks of Illinois and shall not include any structures excluded by Section 20 of the Public Act No. 71-1472.

7. That the County of Madison will contract with any home rule unit in the County to collect the Mobile Home Privilege Tax within the corporate limits of such unit of government upon the same terms and conditions as are set out herein.

8. The cost of administering and collecting the Mobile Home Privilege Tax shall be determined and deducted by the County prior to any distribution.

9. Whoever violates any provision of this Act, shall, except as otherwise provided, be fined not less than $100.00 and not more than $1,000.00 or imprisoned for a period not to exceed 6 months, or by both such fine and imprisonment. Each day's violation shall constitute a separate offense. The State's Attorney of the county in which the violation occurred, or the Attorney General shall bring such actions in the name of the People of the State of Illinois, or may, in addition to other remedies provided in this Act, bring action for an injunction to restrain such violation, or to enjoin the operation of any such mobile home park.

ORDINANCE No. 2856

An Ordinance Providing for the Installation of Certain Traffic Controls

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF GRANITE CITY, ILLINOIS:

SECTION 1: That the following intersection controls at the following location are hereby declared to be the traffic controls at said location by which drivers of vehicles will be governed, are required to stop as indicated by the signs erected at said following location:

LOCATION: Franklin at Lynch.
EXISTING CONTROL: Yield signs.
EFFECTIVE CONTROL: Stop signs on Franklin at Lynch.

SECTION 2: The Superintendent of Streets is hereby authorized and directed to post appropriate signs along and upon the said street for the purpose of enforcing this Ordinance.

SECTION 3: This Ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage, approval and publication as provided by law, and upon the installation of the proper control signs at said location by the Superintendent of Streets.

SECTION 4: Any person, firm or corporation violating any provision of this Ordinance shall be punished by a fine of not more than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) and not less than Five Dollars ($5.00).

SECTION 5: All Ordinances or parts of Ordinaces in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

PASSED by the City Council of the City of Granite City, Illinois, this 17 day of April, A.D., 1972.

APPROVED by the Mayor of the City of Granite City, Illinois, this 24th day of April, A.D., 1972.

600 Scouts to Go on Lincoln Pilgrimage

Six hundred Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and Cubs will board 12 buses at the Nameoki Village Shopping Center at 7 a.m. Sunday and head for Springfield, Ill., where they will join more than 10,000 Scouts from 10 states to participate in the 27th Annual Boy Scout Lincoln Pilgrimage, sponsored by the Abraham Lincoln Council, B.S.A.

A special service honoring Mr. Lincoln will be held beginning at 2:15 p.m. Sunday at Lincoln's tomb, after which the participants will pass through the tomb where the body of the former president and members of his family are interred.

Addressing the Scouts will be Ronald Phillippo, national director of the Public Relations Division of the National Council, Boy Scouts of America.

Following the services at the tomb, the Scouts will parade along a mile and one-half route through the city of Springfield ending in front of the State Capitol building where a reviewing stand will be erected.

While in the Springfield area, the local Scouts will visit Lincoln's home, Illinois State Museum and Lincoln's New Salem Village, located near Petersburg, Ill. about 20 miles north of the capitol where Mr. Lincoln lived and worked prior to moving to Springfield.

Ted Scrum, district commissioner for the Uniwah (Quad Cities) district of the Cahokia Mound Council will be in charge of the local delegation.

Divers Equipment Check Set Sunday

Area scuba divers are invited to take part in an "equipment check" program, sponsored by the Bubblemasters Scuba Diving Club, at 1 p.m. Sunday at Fun and Sun Resort on West Chain of Rocks Road.

Dee Adams, club president, said all certified divers are welcome to attend whether or not members of the Bubblemasters' group. Air will be available at the diving site.

Adams noted that the equipment check procedure is being followed to enable those not diving during the winter months to reactivate and verify the condition of their scuba gear.

The Bubblemasters plan to take part in the Midwest Diving Council's annual spring convention at Table Rock Lake, Mo., May 6-7.

Madrid to Be Camper In Forest Program

Richard Madrid, son of Mrs. Ann Madrid, Rural Route One, has been selected by the U. S. Department of Agriculture Forest Service to serve as a camper for the Youth Conservation Corps program this summer.

He will begin work on July 9 in the Hiawatha National Forest near Escanaba, Mich. It is a pilot program established in 1970 by an Act of Congress signed by President Nixon.

Madrid, 17, is a senior at Granite City High School. He was selected earlier this year for inclusion in "Who Who's in American High Schools." He is a member of the National Honor Society.

Purse Stolen from Car

Peggy Harris, 2215 Missouri Ave., reported at 6:30 p.m. Monday that someone took her black purse valued at $8 from her auto parked at Grigsby Junior High School. The purse contained a $15 blue and white French wallet, a $50 pair of glasses and credit cards.

Vandals Break Glass

Vandals broke a rear door glass in the 2300 block of Edison Avenue and also may have obtained coins totaling $1 or $2 in the home, it was reported Monday.

CIRCLE DISCUSSES 'BLANKET SUNDAY'

Circle Four of the First Presbyterian Church met in the church parlor, with Mrs. Violet Jeffers serving as hostess. Mrs. Virginia Johns, chairman, opened the meeting with prayer and Mrs. Betty Rea read from the yearbook of prayer.

Fellowship of the least coin was led by Mrs. Helen Matson. Plans for May Fellowship Day, of Church Women United, May 5 were announced.

A mother-daughter banquet will take place May 23 at the church, and "Blanket Sunday" will be observed May 7.

Mrs. Arlene Fox gave the lesson, "The Shepherd Who Shook the World." A new member, Mrs. Bert Van, was registered.

Guests were Mrs. Hazel Spengler and Mrs. Bernadine Cooley.

Other members attending were Mesdames Bess Hanley, June Jones, Louise Knowles, Barbara Landis, Virginia Miller and Eunice Thorp.

* * * *

NEWCOMERS' BRIDGE

Prize winners in Newcomer club bridge games were Mrs. Arla Ault, first; Mrs. Marsha Wilimizig, second; Mrs. Sharon Heinke, consolation; and Mrs. Donna Warren. Others participating were Mesdames Sheri Druse, Sylvia Massman and Dody Stevens.

NAMEOKI WOMEN'S CLUB ELECTS MRS. SCHAEFER

The April meeting of the Nameoki Women's Club was held at the Nameoki Recreation Center, with Mrs. Hugh Krause, Mrs. James Stuart and Mrs. Stanley Maer as hostesses. A dessert course was served and decorations included bouquets of spring flowers.

Two guests introduced were Mrs. Lois Parmley and Mrs. Arnold Fleishman.

Arrangements were completed to forward donations to the American Cancer Society and Multiple Sclerosis Society.

A report was given on the annual "guest day" held in March, and it was announced that one of the members, Mrs. Betty Lou Hiles, will have her book of children's songs published in book form as well as on a recording to be released in August.

Mrs. Emmett Beeler reported on attending the 22nd District meeting, and Mrs. Ernest Veihl, membership chairman, announced that Mrs. Frank Mercer is a new member.

Contributions were made to the Care fund and plans were made for the final meeting of the season, a pot luck luncheon in May at the Nameoki Recreation Center.

Mrs. Stuart, chairman of the nominating committee, presented a slate of officers. Elected were Mrs. Ted Schaefer, president; Mrs. Louis Meek, vice-president; Mrs. Wilford Cooley, treasurer; Miss Lucinda Huck, recording secretary; and Mrs. Harold Caldwell, corresponding secretary.

The program for the day was presented by Mrs. Fleishman on "Interior Decorating."

11TH BIRTHDAY PARTY OF MARGARET LOVINS

Margaret Lovins celebrated her 11th birthday during the weekend at a party. A "smiling face" theme was used and yellow streamers decorated the party area.

Games were played and a smiling face birthday cake and ice cream cups were served to Nancy Niecieckl, Susan Range Mary Beth Coffey, Donna Lindsey, Susan Wrischnik, Christine Coleman, Leslie Roberts, Laura Sikora, Donna Rowlett and the honoree's sisters, Rita.

Favors were smiling face mint cups and handmade rings.

A family party was held this week. Margaret's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lovins, entertained her maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Russ How of Webster Groves, and Mr. and Mrs. William Santen and daughters, Kathy, Karen, Karol and Kim of Kirkwood. Also present were the other Lovins children, Rita, Bobby, Mike and Richard.

Aid to Retarded Unit Names Delegates

Mrs. Evelyn Gavin and Mrs. Audrey Lewis were appointed delegates to the annual state convention of the Illinois Association for Retarded at a meeting held Monday evening at St. John United Church of Christ.

The two women were named to represent the Granite City Association for Retarded at the state conference, set May 11-13 at Peoria. Darrel Few also will attend the meeting.

Mrs. Emma Relleke presided at Monday's session and announced that summer day camp for area handicapped youngsters will take place June 12 through June 23 at Wilson Park. Mrs. Margaret Roberts will serve as camp coordinator.

Additional information regarding the residential housing program for young adult handicapped persons will be sought from state leaders at the Peoria conference, Mrs. Lewis said.

A project designed to release young adults from institutionalized care to live in individual housing units is being investigated by the local association.

Terry Latchford, 2 Months Old, Dies

Terry L. Latchford, 2-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer (Brenda) Horn, 1812a State St., was pronounced dead upon arrival at St. Elizabeth Hospital at 9:55 a.m. Tuesday.

An inquest to determine the cause of death will be conducted by Madison County Coroner Robert Thomas.

The child was born in Granite City. Other than the parents, survivors include two brothers, Lloyd Latchford and Homer Horn II; two sisters, Helen Latchford and Patricia Ann Horn; and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Taylor, Gerald Angie and Mrs. Mary Christy.

Funeral arrangements are given in the obituary column.

MRS. TRACY ELECTED BY NAMEOKI PARENTS

The PTA of Nameoki School at its April meeting elected officers to serve during the 1972-73 school year. Mrs. Vera Farrow was chairman of the nominating committee.

New president is Mrs. Joyce Tracy; vice-president, Mrs. Phyllis Brusatti; recording secretary, Mrs. Marian Sipole; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Linda Rozycki; and treasurer, Mrs. Ruth Pope.

A business session was conducted by Mrs. Virginia Apperson, president, and Mrs. Farrow read the PTA prayer. Reports were submitted by Mrs. Barbara Butler, secretary, and Mrs. Alice Selph, treasurer.

Announcement was made of the picnic Tuesday, May 30, from 1 until 3 p.m. at Wilson Park. Members of the PTA board will be in charge of arrangements, and room mothers will direct games for kindergarten through third grade children. The remainder of the classes will participate in a "field day," with the room mothers in charge.

Each student will be given a ticket for a free hot dog, ice cream and cold drink.

Mrs. Tracy, Mrs. Apperson, and Mrs. Brusatti are delegates to the state PTA convention in Springfield yesterday through Saturday.

Cub Scouts of Pack 46, Den 6, led a flag ceremony. Bob Moske presented the charter for a new Boy Scout troop which the PTA will sponsor.

Mrs. Joyce Tracy, kindergarten teacher, talked on a "Day in the Life of a Kindergarten Class" and the children entertained with songs led by Mrs. Tracy.

Guest speaker was Dr. George T. Wilkins Jr., whose topic was "The School-Age Child."

The morning kindergarten class won room attendance honors and refreshments were served by fifth grade room mothers.

The May meeting will include installation of officers and reports from the convention delegates, as well as a special retirement program in honor of Mrs. Goldie Glenn, third grade teacher at Nameoki.

Farm Women's Party Draws 300 'Tasters'

Three hundred Madison County homemakers inspected, tasted and liked what they sampled at the Farm Bureau Women's "Taste It, You'll Like It" party at the Farm Bureau Building in Edwardsville.

The event featuge recipes, displays, demonstrations, gifts, taste tests, a quiz and the coronation of two queens at the morning and afternoon sessions.

Members of the Farm Women's Committee prepared foods in accordance with recipes given the guests. The food dishes were displayed and, at the conclusion of the demonstrations, the women tasted the various dishes.

Sampling of the products was preceded with a short quiz in which participants were asked to unscramble 16 food items within a three-minute period.z

Tying for top honors during the afternoon party were Mrs. Edna Soechtig of Granite City, the eventual champion, and Mrs. Clara Long of Edwardsville.

Miss Florence Schmidt captured the morning quiz honors. Crowns presented the two champions were made by Mrs. Clara Schillinger of Granite City.

QUIZ CHAMPION. Mrs. Edna Soechtig of Granite City, who successfully unscrambled the names of 16 food items to win groceries and a crown at the Madison County Farm Bureau Women's 'Taste It, You'll Like It' party. More than 300 county women attended the event.

Demonstrations were presented by Mrs. Jo Leslie Meyer, Illinois Power home economist from Granite City, who showed use of an electric charcoal grill by preparing hamburgers, steaks and hot dogs at both sessions.

Miss Phyllis Stremming of the St. Louis Dairy Council gave a demonstration, using whole milk to prepare refreshing summer drinks. The results were a whole milk punch with peppermint ice cream and an orange sherbert milk punch.

Guests watched the food being prepared and were afforded an opportunity to question Mrs. Meyer and Miss Stremming about various dishes and the use of new electric and gas grills.

Mrs. Soechtig was presented a $10 sack of groceries and Miss Schmidt received a $10 gift certificate.

Prizes awarded at the two party sessions were furnished by Prairie Farms Dairy, Inc.; Leu's IGA Store; and the Edwardsville Frozen Foods firm.

QUEEN VICTORIA

England's Queen Victoria died on Jan. 22, 1901, and Edward VII ascended the throne.

Extension Sewing Course Is Successful

"Remember, ladies, to lay the pattern pieces on the grain line of the fabric. Do not hold the fabric too tightly while sewing. If the seam is not sewn right, you will have to rip it out."

These comments can be heard any Thursday at the Cooperative Extension Service office, 422 Madison Ave., Madison, usually uttered by Mrs. C. C. Losch of East Alton, who is in charge of a series of sewing classes sponsored by the University of Illinois Home Economics Extension Service.

The overall extension program in Madison County is under the direction of Mrs. Catherine R. Mauck, U. of I. extension adviser.

The nine women enrolled in the current course at the Madison center are residents of Venice, Madison and Granite City.

Mrs. Losch is being assisted in teaching the sewing series by local Home Extension leaders from the Quad-Cities. They include Mrs. Madge Ramsey, Mrs. Freddy McElroy and Mrs. Ruth Brave. Mrs. Leora Howlett of Madison served as workshop coordinator.

Weekly classes started March 16 and will conclude this week. Many of the enrollees had not sewn previously and one woman could sew, but had never used a pattern, Mrs. Losch explained.

"I am very pleased with the way the ladies learned," Mrs. Losch commented, adding, "They all made one dress and some finished two garments."

The instructor noted that learning to fit a pattern to their figure proved the biggest frustration and was considered a major accomplishment when finally achieved. "Sometimes learning how to use a sewing machine proved a big problem, but we managed to work that problem out after a class or two," Mrs. Losch said.

Sewing a zipper into a garment was especially painstaking to several pupils. "One accomplished, however, they were very happy with the end product — a dress not only made by themselves, but made to fit," Mrs. Losch said.

Individual attention was provided by local leaders of the Homemakers Extension program who greatly aided the project instructor, Mrs. Mauck noted.

Participants included Mrs. Maragette Wade, Mrs. Ola Vee Nix, Rebecca Harper, Leola Waters, Lillie Baker, Kissie Walker, Ellise Boxley, Leona London, Minne Giles and Imogene Johnson.

RIVERFRONT CLEAN-UP

Junior Girl Scout Troop 456, under the leadership of Mrs. Pat Foote, is continuing its support of the Save Our American Resources program. Activities have included distribution of pamphlets on selling crab apple trees. The troop purchased two of the trees and planted them at the Venice library and at St. Mark's school.

The Scouts distributed trash bags and information door-to-door during the weekend and on April 29 will hike to the Lions' Park to clean up the riverfront as part of the SOAR project.

In conjunction with Venice's beautification program later in the day, the girls will help sort glass for the recycling segment of the resources program.

Mrs. Pat Foote asked the scouts to save items for a Mother's Day gift craft project. The scouts assembled at Lee Park, where they planted pine trees in a bed; the trees, donated by the River Bluffs Council, will be planted throughout the park later in the year.

Present were Lori Durer, Dottie Foote, Pamela Langston, Denise Mangi, Linda Paterson, Rita Schmidt, Judy Smith, Mary Ann Tolliver, Mary Williams, Jeanine Wilkinson, Verla Austin, Cathy Ponce, Anna Turner, Mary Britt, Cheryl Barker and five prospective members, Rosetta Young, Kim Bennett, Sabina White, Brenda Bankhead and Tina Graham.

ANTI-LITTER CAMPAIGN

Members of Cub Pack 107, led by Mrs. Pat Foote, Mrs. Delores Scaturro, Mrs. Rosemary Paterson and Mrs. Jackie Leatherman met at the Venice Recreation Center to participate in the city's beautification program. Others taking part were Cubmaster Clifford Mathis Sr., Assistant Cubmaster Pete Wilkinson and Mayor and Mrs. John Lee.

The scouts and their guests stuffed 2,000 litter bags and attached fliers for door-to-door distribution.

The pack is selling barbecue tickets for a dinner May 6-7 at the Venice-Madison American Legion. The funds will supplement several summer activities of the pack and a prize will go to the top ticket salesman.

Cubs participating were Joe Mulnik, Timmy Scaturro, Percy Wilkinson, Tom Vogel, Carl Byrnes, Reggie Mathis, David Coggins, Patrick Leatherman, Eddie Paterson, Richard Schmidt, Danny Ponce and Tom Bilbrey, with a prospective scout, Scott DeWitt, and guests, Mrs. Jeannette Wilkinson and children, Janet and Frank, Tina Scaturro, Monet Williams, Derek Mathis, Linda Paterson and Jackie Severs, a representative of the Venice Methodist Youth Fellowship.

LUNCHEON PLANNED

The Koffee Klatchers Social Club held its April meeting in the home of Mrs. Helen Bertacchi, 2500 Jerden Ave., and plans were made for a dinner out next month, at which time the birthday of Mrs. Margaret Breyer will be celebrated.

The secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Joan Yetter, gave a report and the group decided to go to Charlie's for lunch, May 16. Mrs. Doris Stotz, chairman of Neighborhood Three Girl Scout leaders, invited former leaders to attend the "leaders' night out" at Charlie's May 2.

A white elephant gift exchange was held and the hostess served a noon luncheon to those mentioned and Mesdames Mary Rita Ahlers, Carmen Grider, Olivia Kunnemann, Pat Eaton and Helen Santagato.

New Army Base Commander Brings Welcome News on Housing Expansion, Highway Link

Col. Donald Elmore, newly assigned commander of the U. S. Army installation in Granite City, was able to begin his duties here with a happy announcement—plans for construction of 200 more family housing units and assignment of 70 acres of land along the eastern boundary of the base as right-of-way for the Great River Road (Federal Aid Route 151.)

Col. Elmore, a member of the Army Aviation Systems Command, replaces Col. Billy L. Odneal, who will continue to reside at the Granite City installation while associated with AVSCOM research and development engineering in St. Louis.

The local base for many years has provided residential and supporting services to military personnel assigned permanently or temporarily to the St. Louis metropolitan area. The 200 additional apartments are in line with this role and will enhance the installation's ability to continue performing it effectively.

Release of the land to the Illinois Division of Highways is an important step in speeding the day when Route 151 can be extended southward from the main Granite City Army Installation gate at Niedringhaus Avenue.

The divided four-lane highway is to be built to the base's southern gate at Bissell Street in Venice and then past it to connect with Broadway, Main Street and the McKinley Bridge.

The road link with Venice and—by way of the bridge—to St. Louis will provide greatly improved access for the Depot, for a large area of Granite City, Pontoon Beach and Mitchell, and for the vital port-industrial section along the Chain of Rocks Canal.

Increasing Contact Between Granite City Steel Leadership and the Quad-City Area

Word that Howard M. "Pete" Love, Granite City Steel Co. president, is moving his family to this metropolitan area is highly encouraging. He has accepted board positions with financial institutions in both Granite City and St. Louis, and intends to spend a considerable part of his time in this area while retaining direct responsibility also for the Midwest Steel Division in the Chicago area.

Mr. Love and his associates have impressed those with whom they have come in contact here since Granite City Steel was acquired by the National Steel Corporation in 1971.

They are a highly welcome addition to the Quad-Cities, and local residents look forward to an increasing volume of contact with them as the transition period progresses.

Hearings Completed, Hope for Full Speed Ahead in Completing Downtown Area Mall

Now that various legal niceties have been met, and a second public hearing has been held, there is widespread hope that the downtown Granite City mall project can proceed at full speed.

City officials, businessmen and the public share a deep desire to have the construction work undertaken and completed—and the mall actually established and in operation during this year's warm weather.

All who have any role to play in making the central business district mall a reality can do themselves and this community a favor by giving the task high and urgent priority.

Trend Toward Ending All Oaths of Loyalty May Be Halted by New High Court Decision

Although the ruling on April 18 was by only a 4-3 vote, the U. S. Supreme Court spoke clearly in upholding a Massachusetts loyalty oath that requires public employes to pledge not to use force or violence to overthrow the government.

As Chief Justice Warren E. Burger said, all that the particular law requires is that government workers commit themselves not to resort to illegal force. It is similar to the oath taken by presidents, Congressmen and practicing lawyers.

The oath is not asking a lot of workers who are paid by government and ought to have a bit of loyalty toward it.

The rule even permits them to try to change our governmental system through speaking and writing—and it often has been said that the pen is mightier than the sword.

Those justices who disagreed found the oath in conflict with the free speech guarantee. We value constitutional protection of free speech as essential to the perpetuation of freedom and democracy, but we don't see how anyone could accurately define "force or violence" as speech.

Last week's decision is encouraging because it reverses a panel of three federal judges and heralds new thinking on the part of the Supreme Court, which had rejected many loyalty oaths in cases reaching it during the past decade.

For Nixon Visit, Soviet Union Putting on New Face

Like a housewife busy with spring cleaning, the Soviet Union is dusting and straightening its diplomatic facade in preparation for the visit to Moscow by President Nixon next month.

It is clear the Russians are determined to give the summit talks at least the surface glitter of success.

Agriculture Secretary Earl Butz, on his own trip to Moscow, has paved the way for the probable announcement during the President's visit of a deal for the Russians to buy $200 million worth of American grain a year.

A U. S. trade delegation also in the Soviet Union has had red carpet treatment with urgings that the United States extend "most favored nation" tariff concessions to make Soviet exports more marketable here.

In Helsinki, the Strategic Arms Limitation Talks are rolling toward an agreement that is almost certain to become part of a Nixon-Kosygin communique in Moscow.

The Russians have just concurred in an expanded schedule of cultural, scientific and educational exchanges during the next two years.

Soviet space officials are waxing enthusiastic over prospects for a joint space mission with the United States.

With the flood of Easter visits through the Berlin Wall and another scheduled for the Pentecost holidays in May, the Russians are urgently trying to woo West Germany into ratification of Willy Brandt's Moscow and Warsaw treaties.

In the Middle East, they are keeping a rein on Arab ambitions against Israel while concluding a new friendship treaty with Iraq.

And they are making a determined effort to patch up differences with Turkey which have aggravated their relations for three centuries.

The flaw in this "peace offensive" by the Russians is that it does not hide their military expansion in the Mediterranean or their mischief-making in the India-Pakistan dispute.

It does not drown out the thunder of tanks and artillery which the Russians have handed to the North Vietnamese to invade South Vietnam.

It does not conceal the build-up of conventional and nuclear arms that gives the Soviet image a bone-chilling aspect to the whole world.

It is all too apparent that the Soviet Union is using the forthcoming Moscow summit as part of a sweeping and methodical consolidation of its policy of transitory detente toward the West—while it pursues deadly adventures in its contest with Communist China for supremacy in Asia.

President Nixon can expect an abundance of hospitality in Moscow:

However, putting the best silver on the table and breaking out the rarest wine does not change the essential character of a household.

There is a limit to how much any housewife can sweep under the rug.

Gourmet Clarifies a Few Points

Graham Kerr, television's "galloping gourmet," is pretty particular about how he arranges a dinner party, judging by the first volume—"Favorite Dishes: Deep South Pacific"—of his six-volume cookbook series.

We'll list what he considers the five cardinal rules.

1. Never have more than eight people at a sit-down dinner. He says more than eight creates a problem of conversation, which he describes as the primary reason for having a party.

2. Never serve more than three courses, plus cheese. "People's digestion and weight problems cannot cope with more."

3. With a party of eight, never have any outside help in the kitchen or dining room. "You can't fiddle with the word hospitality; it is either your own ideas, your own food and your own work, or it isn't hospitality."

4. Only one dish is an experiment. "To attempt more builds up an anxiety level that can close you off from your friends."

5. First-time foods are a must. "Always cook one dish you've never tried before. The dinner party is about the only place to experiment. The desire for success is enormous, so you won't take liberties with the recipe content."

Keeping in mind his South Pacific theme, here is a typical main course for eight—Steak Whakatane.

Ingredients— eight 8 oz. beef sirloin steaks; ½ cup clarified butter; salt; black pepper; 4 garlic cloves; small bunch spring onions; 4 cups small tomatoes; bunch parsley; 2 green peppers; 4 cups mushrooms.

1. Heat a little butter in large frying pan. Season steaks and rub with garlic clove. Sear meat at high heat, reduce temperature and turn to create even color.

2. In separate pan. Add peppers, mushrooms and tomatoes. Reduce heat and allow tomatoes to soften.

3. When steaks are cooked, cover with vegetables and dust with parsley.

What in the world is clarified butter, you ask?

It is a staple for frying, braising and sauteing in many of Kerr's recipes, although he concedes that most cooks may not know what it is.

He clarifies the subject in Volume IV, the one featuring "old English pubs and genuine Stroganoff."

Kerr relates, "Clarified butter is the clear, liquidy butter that remains after the thicker, milkier substance is removed."

His method for clarifying butter follows:

1. Place 1 lb. butter into at least a 2-pint saucepan over a low heat.

2. When butter has dissolved 5-6 minutes (depending upon the heat of the element or gas), keep a careful eye on it. A milky substance will rise in small bubbles until the entire surface is covered with it.

3. Raise the heat a little and this substance will turn to a foam; skim this off as it forms. Do not throw skimmings away. Remove butter from heat when foam has been removed and allow to settle for a couple of minutes.

4. Pour the now-clear butter slowly through muslin to remove the sediment that will have fallen to the bottom of the pan.

5. The clarified butter should be kept in a jar in the refrigerator (or in a cool place) and used as required. The sediment and butter foam can be used in baked potatoes in their jackets.

Did he make everything perfectly clear? Or perfectly clarified?

Three Free Prisoner from Jail

APRIL 27, 1922

A prisoner was spirited from the Venice jail by three masked men, armed with two riot guns and a revolver. Arriving at 4:45 a.m., they took a revolver and the jail keys from Night Sgt. Luther Alvey, who was alone. Alvey was placed in the cell of the prisoner, who was being held for the Chester penitentiary.

Horseshoe Lake Bridge Collapses

APRIL 27, 1947

After many years of service, the bridge across Horseshoe Lake at Moellenbrock's collapsed as Charles Kunick, 2821 (rear) Edwards St., Nameoki, was driving his sedan over it. The Koppers plant employe said he was going east and had just driven onto the west end when the first span collapsed, causing his car to overturn and wedging it on the bridge in about two feet of water. He was knocked out for a few moments.

School Bills Seek Accountability and Encourage Full-Year Operation

(Springfield Scene)

Illinois school authorities are asking the legislature to broaden the state's authority to hold schools accountable for educational performance and to provide $25 million in emergency assistance to financially-strapped districts.

In his 1972 legislative package, Superintendent of Public Instruction Michael Bakalis also seeks to ease the financial strain on school districts experiencing a sudden drop in pupil population. (H. 4330)

The important school aid formula was not part of the legislation introduced last week. Supt. Bakalis is expected to reveal his plans for the formula before the School Problems Commission this week.

The legislature is confronted with the problem of a $186-million gap between Gov. Ogilvie's state school aid budget and the superintendent's higher request.

Supt. Bakalis is seeking to raise the state's share of local school funding to at least 50% within three years. It is now about 38%.

In addition to general appropriations measures, the superintendent's legislative program includes a bill to provide for a state educational need assessment program.

It requires an annual assessment of pupil performance and fiscal efficiency of education. (S. 1430)

Detailed financial plans of school districts would be required by the state under another measure. (S. 1428)

The $25-million emergency school aid bill (S. 1429) would allow some financially-troubled districts, including Chicago, to complete the present school year. However, the Chicago schools have projected $98-million shortage this year.

A bill was introduced to provide grants for local school districts to study the feasibility of operating schools on a full-year basis. (S. 1431)

The bill also opens the door to state reimbursement of transition costs involved in switching to a full-year basis.

Two alternative measures to encourage 12-month school years also were introduced last week.

One (H. 4264) by Rep. David Shapiro, Amboy Republican, would grant 5% additional state aid to schools operating on a full-year basis for the first year.

The other alternative plan. (H. 4328) introduced by Minority Leader Clyde Choate, Anna Democrat, would provide state reimbursement for special education and gifted programs operated on a full-year basis.

* * *

Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie threw his support behind three bills pending in the House that would result in immediate property tax relief in the suburbs and other developing areas.

Two of the bills (S. 658 and 659) require subdivision developers to contribute enough land—or cash in lieu of land—to provide for future school sites.

The other measure (S. 661) would allow cities and counties to collect an occupancy fee whenever a new home is built. This is an effort to close a time lag in the assessment process.

This time lag occurs when property has been assessed as vacant land at assesment time in January, but by September homes have been built and children are entering schools.

The cost of their education is borne almost entirely by other taxpayers in the community for nearly two full school years.

Sponsor of the three bills is Sen. Harris W. Fawell, Naperville Republican.

Two of the measures are lodged in the House Committee on Counties and Townships and the other stalled at the pasage stage last June 24 in the House.

* * *

The card holder's picture would be required on credit cards after Jan. 1, 1973, under a bill (H. 4277) introduced in the House.

* * *

A bill to prohibit striking employes from receiving public aid (H. 1481) was tabled by its sponsor, Rep. Brian Duff, R-Wilmette, when it became apparent that not enough votes were available to bring the bill out of committee.

* * *

Veterans' Day would be returned to Nov. 11 under S. 1385-7 introduced by Sen. Robert Mitchler, Oswego Republican.

* * *

Two approaches to the problem of no-fault automobile insurance are attempted in separate bills (H. 4275 and H. 4344) introduced in the House.

* * *

A bill introduced in the House would extend to 180 days from 90 days the time period in which the Pollution Control Board is required to take final action in variance and permit cases (H. 4352).

Personal Property Tax Legislation

Taxpayers' Federation of Illinois

Personal property tax bills being considered by the Illinois General Assembly include:

H. B. 3776. Exempts from taxation tangible personal property used by the owner thereof exclusively in the business of farming; also redefines household furniture and one personal automobile as a class of personal property not to be taxed in the future.

H. B. 4218. Allows standard deduction of $7,500 from the equalized assessed valuation of personal property owned by every taxpayer, individual or corporate; provides for rebate of state revenues to local taxing districts for loss based on actual collection of personal property taxes in 1970. Applicable to assessments made in 1972.

H. B. 3546. Allows a deduction of $25,000 from equalized assessed valuation of personal property for every taxpayer in the State. Effective upon becoming a law.

S. B. 1333. Grants to individuals, trusts and estates an income tax credit for 1972 and each year thereafter equal to personal property taxes paid in Illinois for that taxable year.

For instance, if an individual taxpayer owed $500 in state income taxes and paid $100 in personal property taxes during that year, he would subtract $100 from $500 and pay the state $400 in state income taxes.

S. B. 1342, 1343. Abolish the ad valorem personal property tax on every taxpayer as of the date they become laws, and provide for replacement of revenue lost by units of local government and school district from an income tax on individuals and corporations.

Other tax related legislation of interest follows:

H. B. 4141. Requires the Department of Local Government Affairs to permit a committee consisting of the chief assessment officer of a county and members of the county board to review the Department's records on which a county's equalization factor was determined.

H. B. 4134. Adds a provision in the State Use Tax Act which exempts from the tax the temporary storage in Illinois of building materials and fixtures which are acquired either in this state or outside of this state by an Illinois registered combination retailer and construction contractor, and which such purchaser thereafter uses outside this state by incorporating such property into real estate located outside Illinois.

S. B. 1339, 1340. These bills permit taxpayers 65 years or older to defer payment of real estate taxes on non-income producing homestead property until property is sold or the taxpayer dies; such deferred taxes to bear interest at 3% per year. The Department of Local Government Affairs to pay county collector from deferred tax revolving fund the amount of taxes so deferred.

State Status--Unity Possible, Won't Be Easy

By RAY SERATI

Copley News Service

Springfield—The state's attorney's race in Cook County could become one of the overriding issues in the coming months ahead in the Democratic gubernatorial race.

Donald Page Moore, who was the independent Democrat to run against the incumbent Democratic State's Atty. Edward V. Hanrahan, has announced his support of the Republican candidate, Bernard Carey.

Moore indicated that perhaps the Democratic candidate for governor, Daniel Walker, should lean that way. Up to now, Walker has wasted no time in blasting away at the Chicago Democratic machine led by Mayor Richard J. Daley.

Hanrahan, who became embroiled in controversy surrounding the death of two Black Panther leaders, defeated Moore and the Daley organization candidate Raymond K. Berg.

The organization had decided to support Hanrahan, but after pressure decided to substitute Berg. Hanrahan stayed in the race and won the primary.

Moore said, "I don't want to be specific. Now is a time not to support the unrighteous but to support the righteous." Observers say this was clearly a dig at Walker, who has been blasting away at the Daley organization.

His repeated attacks on the Daley organization have been bringing up the hackles on some of the Downstate leaders in the Democratic Party, especially since he beat Downstater Lt. Gov. Paul Simon in the March primary.

If the Downstate party leaders have become uneasy over the repeated charges, it certainly is setting even less well with the Chicago contingent.

Any way Walker goes, he is apparently going to put himself in the position of "you are darned if you do and you are darned if you don't."

He has already called on three of his running mates to resign their Chicago Democratic Party offices. Downstaters maintain this will have an effect on candidates' appearances on Downstate college campuses, where Walker appears to have a great deal of support because of his opposition to the Daley organization.

If the three—Lt. Gov. candidate Neil F. Hartigan, U. S. Sen. candidate Cong. Roman C. Pucinski and Atty. Gen. candidate Sen. Thomas Lyons—refuse to resign their ward committeeman posts, this will be noted by the college voters. Lyons said he felt Walker meant that the resignation should occur after being elected.

With the Hanrahan situation, along with three of the candidates being tied to the Daley organization, everything at this time appears to be far from settled for a united drive for the election.

Certainly, Walker will not openly support the candidacy of Hanrahan.

In not endorsing Hanrahan, Walker said he would not hold it against the other statewide candidates who do or will support Hanrahan.

One is State Auditor Michael J. Howlett, nominee for secretary of state, who led all votegetters by receiving slightly over one million votes. The popular Howlett, known throughout the state, will help Walker votes in the Nov. 7 general election.

Daley has offered an olive branch to Walker by inviting him by letter to speak at the Democratic party's fund raising affair May 24. It will be a $100-a-plate gala and Democrats from throughout the state are expected to attend.

Walker says he plans to meet with the three ward committeemen—state nominees and then he will decide as to what course of action should be taken.

This is being interpreted as at least a slight softening of his stand against machine politics.

And the Daley invitation is being viewed as an effort by the mayor to have the campaign begin on a note of unity.

Although the campaign may be launched with a degree of unity, a question remaining is whether a "united front" can be maintained throughout the year without altering Walker's image as a foe of organization politics.

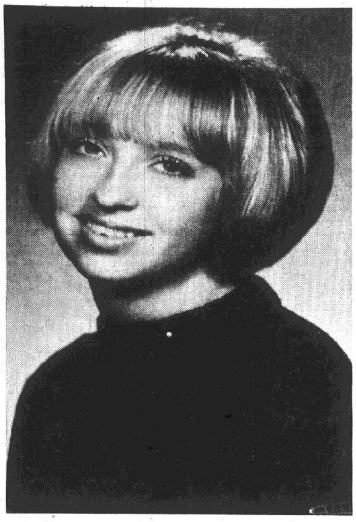

A lot will depend on the conference to be held with Hartigan, Pucinski and Lyons.

Walker's first indication was that he wanted them to resign from party posts, and he has directed similar comments toward Republicans.

This was viewed as an attempt to cut the ties of machine politics. Will the ties be cut, or kept intact?

Spiceland-Ortner Ceremony in Chicago

On out-of-town wedding of interest here was that taking place April 22 in Chicago of Miss Nadine C. Ortner and Philip H. Spiceland.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ortner, 1311 W. Pratt Blvd., Chicago. Mr. Spiceland's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Spiceland, reside at 3739 Fair Oaks Drive.

The Rev. Roy Ryden, pastor, officiated at the 4 o'clock afternoon ceremony at the Rogers Park Lutheran Church. A dinner and reception were held immediately following the wedding at the Sovereign Hotel, Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Spiceland were hosts at a rehearsal dinner Friday evening for members of the wedding party at the Town and Country Resturant in Chicago.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a full length gown fashioned of white silk organza and a triple tiered, shoulder length veil of illusion, secured with a high crown of seed pearl petals.

The bridal gown was designed with an Empire waistline, a mandarin collar and long full sleeves ending in lace cuffs at the wrists. Rows of white Alencon lace. Extended from the waist to the hem and encircled the full skirt.

She carried a bouquet of assorted spring flowers.

Miss Cynthia Ortner, the bride's sister and her only attendant, appeared in a full length lilac and white dotted swiss organza frock. Long gathered sleeves, cuffed in white lace, were set in the Empire bodice made with a high neckline. Her bouquet was an arrangement of white garnet roses and violets festooned with long white streamers.

The groom chose Bart Russell as best man. Ron Turner and Brett Champion, the groom's cousin, served as ushers. All are from Granite City.

Mrs. Ortner chose for her daughter's wedding, a dusty pink crepe coat and dress ensemble with matching accessories.

The groom's mother, Mrs. Spiceland, was attired in a pale orange and white polyester double-knit coat and dress, complemented with accessories in the same shades. Both mothers wore corsages of phalaenopsis orchids.

After a wedding trip to Acapulco, Mexico, the newly married couple will make their home in Chatham, Ill.

The former Miss Ortner graduated in 1968 from Sullivan High School in Chicago and attended Illinois State University.

Mr. Spiceland, a 1967 graduate of Granite City High School, received his B.S. degree in 1971 from Illinois State University. His fraternity is Kapna Delta Rho. He is employed by the State of Illinois in public television in the Office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction in Springfield, Ill.

Attending the wedding from Granite City were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Weston, Mrs. Kate Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Champion, Mrs. Jennifer Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. Randy Keck, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Farrow, Miss Robyn Champion, Kirk and Keith Champion, Craig Bailey, Jack Farrow and Glen Breuner. Also among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bono of Marion, Ind.

IS OUR HOUSE THE BEST VALUE IN TOWN TODAY???

We Think So—and Heres' Why . . . In our opinion the Basement House, in the Granite City area, will increase in value, over the value of a non-basement or slab house with a garage, to the extent that its increased value should, within ten years, be worth the price of a new car to you.

The basement home, has the advantage of easy and inexpensive expansion for additional bedroom or family room, while you are making money living in it.

In other words . . . the basement house has better, quicker, and higher re-sale value.

Our contribution to the space program.

There's still one place on our crowded planet, where you can have a little elbowroom.
The Volkswagen Station Wagon.
In fact it has about twice as much of that precious commodity as the average station wagon.
With all this space, it can accommodate as many as 9 earthlings.
With the massive sliding door, it can accommodate the most outrageous objects.
With a special suspension system (and a lot of cushy upholstery), it can accommodate the most fragile housewife.
Of course even with all these assets, our space vehicle still can't leave the ground.
But then what do you expect for,
The moon?

When you work for yourself, you don't have to worry about layoffs

If you're tired of working for other people, maybe it's time to step out on your own. It takes drive and determination to be a Shell dealer, but take a look at what you get.

You're your own boss. Leading your own men. Running the show on your own.

The average Shell station sells 50 percent more gasoline than the industry average. Of course, it means hard work and long hours but it can be done.

And Shell makes available to its dealers benefits that you used to be able to get only by working for someone else.

1) Group Life Insurance
2) Hospital/Surgical/Medical Coverage
3) Retirement and Investment Plan

Right now we're looking for more Shell dealers. Previous or related experience, while helpful, is not necessary. Qualified dealers will receive four weeks of paid training at a Dealer Management Development Center.

For more information, call or write Shell Oil Company, 500 Northwest Plaza St. Ann, Missouri.

Phone: 618-234-0676 (collect) Evenings and Weekends or 314-291-5700 (collect) Weekdays.

Conservation Department Lists Rivers Facilities

By RAY SERATI
Copley News Service

Springfield — Despite the recent wintery blasts and the snow there is probably someone in Illinois hoping for the spring and summer and along with it boating.

If you are planning to do some boating this year on Illinois rivers the Conservation Department can help you. The Department has what is known as the "Illinois Rivers Facilities Map." A boater may get a copy of the map by contacting the Conservation Department.

Facilities are listed for the Mississippi River from East Dubuque to Cairo. On the Illinois River the facilities are listed from Joliet-Chicago to Grafton and on the Ohio River from Cairo to Shawneetown. On the Wabash River the facilities are listed from Shawneetown to Marshall.

The information contained on the map runs from campsites to overnight accommodations. The map also points out the state parks or federal parks along the way. It also tells which governmental agency operates the various marinas and other facilities.

Shows River Mileage

The map also shows the river mileage between various points along the individual rivers.

The map was prepared for the Conservation Department by the Business and Economic Development Department.

The map does not show the smaller or more "localized" rivers. Officials point out that these types of rivers have been receiving heavy boating in the past few years.

However, the map does not show the large impoundments of water throughout the state which have become very popular in recent years.

These include the Shelbyville and Carlyle Reservoirs on the Kaskaskia River, the Chain O' Lakes in McHenry County and Crab Orchard Lake near Herrin-Carbondale. There are several other lakes and reservoirs scattered throughout the state which are very popular including the Illinois side of Lake Michigan.

GC Council Ok's Purchase of 200 Parking Meters

A proposal by Alderman Sam Whitmer that Granite City buy 200 new parking meters at a cost of $11,850 was approved unanimously by city council members Monday night.

Whitmer, chairman of the city council's traffic Committee, said the price is the same as that paid for the city's last previous purchase of 200 parking meters three years ago.

The meters are to be furnished by Duncan Industries of Elk Grove Village, Ill. who offered the city the new meters at the same cost as the earlier purchase. The total cost is based on a figure of $59.25 per meter.

On a motion by Whitmer, the council authorized City Clerk Robert Stevens to enter into a contract with Duncan Industries for delivery of the meters.

Whitmer said some of the meters will be installed as additional meters, but that others will be used to replace present meters which are causing maintenance problems.

The alderman pointed out that the contract provides for payment on an installment basis of $234 per month.

Miss Merkelbach In Literary Society

Sara Merkelbach, a graduate of Granite City High School, has been elected to membership in Chi Beta Literary Society at Illinois College, Jacksonville.

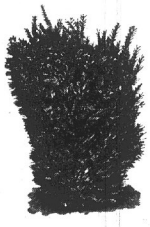

Members will be inducted during the society's formal weekend in May, at which time they will sign the society constitution. They have gone through a pledge period of six weeks and testing about the society traditions and functions.

The literary society serves the same social role as do fraternities and sororities at other schools.

Sara is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Merkelbach, 2625 E. 27th St.

Campus Mother's Day Set May 5-6 at U. I.

Campus Mother's Day weekend will be May 5-6 at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. Students plan many activities for their parents, and the U. of I. Mothers Association will have its 50th annual meeting.

The association meeting will be at 9:45 a.m. May 6 in the Illini Union. All mothers are being urged to attend. Miriam A. Shelden, dean of student personnel, will speak.

Miss Shelden, who came to the U. of I. in 1947 as dean of women, will receive the Mothers Association Medal of Honor at the meeting. It is presented each year to an individual who has enriched the lives of others by example and service.

Honors convocations will be May 5 with the College of Engineering convocation in the morning; College of Veterinary Medicine, early in the afternoon; and Military Honors later in the afternoon.

The Illini Union Student Activities organization is selecting an "Illini Mom" to represent all mothers who are honored guests for the weekend.

Entertainment ranges from presentation of "Fiddler on the Roof" in the Assembly Hall to a Fine Arts Fair and Thieves Market selling items designed and made by students. Other events include a style show, Women's Glee Club concert with Men's Glee Club making a guest appearance, University Theater presenting "The Prime of Miss Jean Brodie" in the Krannert Center Playhouse and Duke Ellington appearing in the center's Great Hall.

Venice Senior Class Presents Play Friday

By KIM BOELLING

The senior class of Venice High School will present the play, "Stranger In The Night," at 8 p.m. Friday.

Tickets may be purchased from a member of the play cast for 50 cents and $1 and at the door the night of the play for 75 cents and $1.25.

The play, a comedy-mystery in three acts by Paul S. McCoy, takes place in a book and gift shop located off the lobby of the Boulevard Hotel. It appears to be an ordinary gift shop, but it is surrounded by mystery. A murder is to be committed.

The question is, who is the victim? Velda Stevens? Mable Crane? Sylvia Lee? Eddie Beach The answer is known only to the "Strangers in the Night."

The director of the play is Miss Irene Hackett. Members of the cast include Bill Schodroski, Karole Logan, Valeria Fuller, Kim Boelling, Joan McGarrahan, Sharon Ballentine, Elizabeth Glover, Annie Mosby, Danny Maurer, Eddie Smith and Jim Ohlendorf.

ATTENDANT TO QUEEN. Pam Stark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Stark Jr., Rural Route One, Granite City, is escorted by John Josendale, son of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Josendale, St. Joseph, Mo., after Miss Stark was named an attendant to queen Cindy Porter, St. Louis, at the Missouri Military Academy's annual Tulip Ball during the weekend. The queen and her attendants were selected from among the girls attending the dance by officers of the senior class who served as escorts. Missouri Military Academy is a school for boys at Mexico, Mo.

Moonspinners Active In 'Share the Fun' Day

The Moonspinners 4-H Club journeyed to Highland during the weekend to participate in the "Share the Fun" day sponsored by the Madison County 4-H Federation. The event was held at the Weinheimer building and featured special acts from 25 clubs from throughout the county.

The local group presented a drill and march routine to the "Parade of the Wooden Soldiers". A green ribbon was awarded for their presentation, and their mistress of ceremonies, Lynn Wessel, of the Highland Highlighters 4-H Club, received an A rating.

An excellent rating was given to the Moonspinners for their costumes, which were white tennis shoes, blue jeans and white shirts with wide red criss-cross suspenders, and tall red soldier hats made from construction paper.

First place in the day's competition was awarded to two clubs from Troy who presented a joint act, "'Tis A Small World". The group will represent Madison County in state competition in Springfield during the State Fair.

The winning emcee was also from the Troy group, and she will also compete in the state meet.

Mothers assisting the Moonspinner leaders, Mrs. Elizabeth Schmidt and Mrs. Ruth Malottki, were Mrs. Margaret DeRuntz, Mrs. Katheryn Ponce and Mrs. Marie Turner.

Girls taking part in the program were Mary Anne Bequette, Debbie Schnefke, Lori Malottki, Betty Ann Komadina, Maria Schmidt, Maryann Colbert, Rosalie Ponce, Linda St. Ivany, Denise St. Ivany, Betsy Slate, Anita Turner, Jane Friederich, Jo Marie DeRuntz, Kathaleen DeRuntz and Rita Deruntz.

Journalism School Ranks High in U. S.

The School of Journalism of Southern Illinois University at Carbondale is ranked among the top journalism schools in the United States in a survey conducted by the S. I. Newhouse School of Public Communications at Syracuse University.

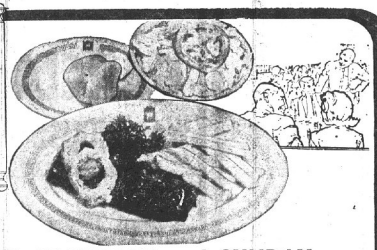

The study, "Journalism Education Reputations," was based on questionnaires mailed to all 173 schools and departments of journalism and communications listed in the 1970 Editor & Publisher Yearbook and the 1971 Journalism Educator Directory. Meaningful responses were received from 107 of the educators queried.

Respondents were asked to give their personal opinions of journalism programs, according to a high-medium-low scale, in five specific areas: quality of faculty, effectiveness of graduate program in professional areas, effectiveness of doctoral program, relevancy of research, and improvement over the last five years.

SIU's journalism program, the only one established since World War II at any of the schools which ranged highest in the survey, was rated fourth on past five years. SIU ranked, the basis of improvement in the very close to the top in the other areas as well.

Youth Focus

Merle Haggard Platter Tells of Lonely Youth

By JUDY HUGG
Copley News Service

Each time country music star Merle Haggard writes a new song, his staff hears the words, "Let Me Tell You About A Song." He's chosen these same words as the title for his new Capitol album.

Haggard tells the story behind each song. Some happy, some tormented, some filled with regret. You hear the loneliness in his bumming around the Southwest at age 14, the 21st birthday celebrated in San Quentin (Calif.) Prison.

The songs range from "Daddy Frank (The Guitar Man)," "Grandma Harp," to "Irma Jackson," about two people of different races in love.

The album closes with the rollicking "Bring It On Down to My House, Honey." This take alone is worth the price of the album.

The death of an entire town is told in "Crescentville," the title song of Larry Groce's second album for Daybreak Records. Groce, 23, gives an honest and sincere interpretation to each take.

Background musicians Pete Kleinow, some of the Dillards and a couple of the Swampwater bring it all together on "The Bumper Sticker Song."

Children in Trouble

Groce composed the music for "Children in Trouble," a film produced for President Nixon's Council On Children. He has appeared in a short subject film "The Messenger" and a Church of Christ, Scientist-produced motion picture, "Haven't We Met Somewhere?"

Larry Groce is a young man on the move.

It sounds like an ego trip. The name of the album is "Lou Reed," that's all — just "Lou Reed." Vocals and guitar by Lou Reed (along with Caleb Quaye, Steve Howe, Paul Keogh, Rick Wakeman, Les Hurdle, Brian Odgers, Clem Cattini, Kay Garner, Helene Francois). Produced by Richard Robinson and Lou Reed. Arranged by Lou Reed. All songs written by Lou Reed.

The accompaniment is excellent, and Lou Reed can plunk a mean guitar, but when the desire to sing comes upon him, he should "stifle" himself. Lou Reed shows real talent in the song writing department, but he should have someone other than Lou Reed sing his songs. You will find "Lou Reed" on the RCA-Victor label.

Widely Known Drummer

Buddy Rich is probably the most widely known drummer in the world of music today. In "Rich in London," a RCA-Victor album, he proves again how he attained that position. Recorded live at Ronnie Scott's, you can feel and share the audience's excitement. Rich is at top form all the way. Some of the best cuts are the jazz classic "Two Bass Hit," "Little Train," "Time Being" with brilliant solo work by Bruce Paulson on trombone, Jeff Stout on trumpet and Bob Dogan at the piano. An interesting note is that Rich's daughter, Kathy, accompanied him to London and does a vocal on "Thats Enough."

On The Classical Side: Talk of sheer brilliance in piano technique and you think of young Glenn Gould. And perhaps there is no better music to show off this technique than the sonatas of Mozart. With a driving rhythm and an emphatic left hand Gould gives Mozart a curiously modern sound in this Columbia (M-31073) recording—Volume 3 containing Sonatas 8, 10, 12, and 13.

Gould is especially effective in this sense with the slow movement of the Sonata in F Major, a poetic reverie in which Mozart breaks somewhat from the classical mold and looks ahead to the romantic period.

And Gould obviously has a good time playing the swift allegros which travel at a dizzying pace; the sound engineers picked up Gould humming along with the music in several places. An excellent record choice for Mozart fans.

With the sound track for "Hot Rock," Quincy Jones adds another innovative success to his already glowing list of credits. The disc is the original music from the movie and comes to you on the Prophesy label. The music is dynamic, perfectly attuned to each specific mood in the picture and the overall feel is perfectly representative of the contemporary musical direction.

The film, written by William Goldman and starring Robert Redford and George Segal, is a box-office smash and the music, played by such greats as Clark Terry, Gerry Mulligan, Grady Tate, Ray Brown, Chuck Rainey and others, more than stands on its own as a fine musical statement.

Paris Encounter

"Paris Encounter" by Gary Burton & Stephane Grappelli, on Atlantic, is one of those rare transcending moments in jazz when two men separated by generations in terms of experience and musical roots come together out of mutual respect and admiration and create vital, exciting, and new music.

Part of this is explainable by the fact that since his halcyon days of playing with the legendary Django Reinhardt, jazz violinist Stephane Grappelli has continued to grow while maintaining a constantly regenerating youthfulness and energy in his playing.

The cool grace of his style fuses perfectly with the brilliantly innovative style of Gary Burton on vibraharp. Though Burton is a good deal younger than Grappelli, the mutual vision that both men share puts this album head and shoulders over many being played today.

Course in Reading, Listening Set at LCCC

Lewis and Clark Community College will offer a new program in reading and listening this summer for persons interested in improving comprehension of visual, oral and written communication. The course will be offered in both the four-week pre-summer school session and the regular eight-week summer session.

Entitled "Fundamentals of Communication — Reading and Listening", the course will be divided into four main areas. The study in observation will use visual signs, symbols and scenes in order to improve powers of observation.

A six-hour session devoted to listening to a variety of topics and voices will teach students to comprehend content by listening to tapes. A second six-hour session will be devoted to note-taking in a logical and orderly way so that message content may later be reconstructed.

A final session on reading will consist of analyzing paragraphs for topics, specific facts and implications. Comprehension of college-level reading material will be stressed

Sandy Frey Survives Spelling Bee Round

Sandy Frey, 13, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Frey, 36 Oaklawn Drive, was one of 16 youths to survive a quarter-final round of National Spelling Bee competition Saturday in St. Louis.

She is a student at St. Elizabeth School and will be among 60 contestants in the semi-finals at 10 a.m. Saturday.

Area finals will be May 7 and will be televised. The regional champion will receive an expense-paid trip to the national finals in June at Washington, D. C., a portable television set, a 24-volume Encyclopaedia Britannica, a dictionary and an engraved pen and pencil set. All spellers in the quarter finals were given pens, a badge and certificate.

'Y' Miles for Mankind Program Available

Chuck Hasse, YMCA youth director, announced that a film program is available to any group on the 15-mile walk known as YMCA "Miles For Mankind".

The walk is set for 8 a.m. Saturday, May 13. Hasse said that he and members of the committee would be happy to explain the fund-raising project to any group interested, in hopes of getting them involved in the walk.

Anyone interested in the program may contact Hasse at the YMCA.

Mobile Home Tax to Take Effect May 1

The new privilege tax on mobile homes in Madison County will take effect on May 1 for all areas of the county except Granite City and Alton.

The license and tax ordinance was passed by the Madison County Board of Supervisors in January, and since that time, the Illinois attorney general has ruled that passage of the ordinance is mandatory in all counties. Granite City and Alton are expected to pass similar ordinances within the next two weeks, according to Marshall Smith, assistant state's attorney.

The county ordinance abolishes the personal property tax on mobile homes and imposes a yearly privilege tax of 15 cents per square foot. For persons over 65 and for families earning less than $4,000 a year, the tax is 10 cents per square foot.

Owners of mobile home courts will register their tenants within their particular courts, but those owning a trailer on an individual lot must register from May 1-30 at the office of the License Administrator, 405 Center St., Edwardsville. The ordinance provides a fine for noncompliance.

Ernest S. Rich, 83, Dies; Here 56 Years

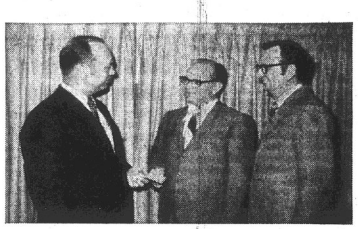

Ernest S. Rich, 83, of 2001 Edison Ave., a retired member and past treasurer of Operating Engineers Local 520, an office he held for 30 years, died at 12:30 a.m. Tuesday, at St. Elizabeth Hospital.

He had been ill one month and a patient at the hospital for the same length of time. Mr. Rich was born in Anna, Ill. and had lived in Granite City since 1916.

A member of the First United Presbyterian Church, he served at the church as a deacon and also belonged to Masonic Lodge 835, and Ainad Temple Shrine. Mr. Rich was a 33rd degree Mason.

Survivors include two sons, Edwin Rich of Cape Coral, Fla., and James Rich of Anna, Ill.; a brother, Robert L. Rich of Anna; seven grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by another son, E. R. Pat Rich, in June 1971.

Funeral services were held today. Details are given in the obituary column.

Spectacular Model Air Shows Set for Summer

June 3 and 4, and July 16 mark two spectaculars in the 1972 Model Aviation Calendar of the Greater St. Louis Modeling Association.

The association will sponsor the 12th annual Model Airplane contest at Buder Park, near Valley Park, Mo., on Saturday and Sunday, June 3 and 4. With its ten member clubs, the GSLMA has expanded the competition to include many more events. The competition is open to all model aviation enthusiasts who wish to enter, provided they are members of the Academy of Model Aeronautics.

More than 100 trophies and merchandise awards will be presented. Radio control will be flown on both days, with free flight and controline events on Sunday only.

There will be a special controline beginners event for trophies to be awarded.

Then back to Buder Park on Sunday, July 16, for the Annual All Model Air Show, again sponsored by the GSLMA. More than 1,500 people viewed the 3½ hours of model airplane flying in 1971 and this year's air show will be bigger and better. From 1 to 4 p.m., a continuous flight program will feature all phases of model airplane flying by the area's top flyers. Free flight, controline and radio control will be the order of the day with demonstrations in stunt, team races, combat, scale, Navy carrier, pylon racing, glider and more.

For information call John Blum at 877-8255 or write 2417 Glen Place, Granite City.

State Troopers Plan Annual Dance May 6

Illinois State Trooper Lodge 41, Fraternal Order of Police, will hold its third annual benefit dance on May 6 at the Belle-Clair Exposition Building, St. Clair County Fairgrounds at Belleville.

Troopers Lodge 41 will present the Swing and Sway music of Sammy Kaye and his orchestra. To eliminate the telephone solicitation, tickets for this year's affair are being offered to the public by mail only. A letter with an order coupon attached is being mailed to people who supported the Troopers Lodge in the past.

A limited amount of tickets are being offered so that anyone acquiring a ticket will be assured of a seat. Tickets will be mailed out on "first ordered-first served" basis.

Kroger Equipment Saves Acres of Trees Weekly

New equipment has been added to the Kroger Food Store, 3401 Nameoki Road, which is estimated to save two and one-half acres of trees a week.

If that sounds confusing, it really isn't. The new addition to the store is a paper compactor and baler which presses cardboard which otherwise would be wasted, and converts it into neat, compact bundles, suitable for recycling.

It is estimated by econoligts that one acre of trees is saved by every ton of paper recycled. The local Kroger store is compacting and baling two and one-half tons of cardboard per week here, saving about two and one-half acres of trees from being cut down and converted into cardboard.

Ecology also is aided in that the cardboard no longer is disposed of by burning.

Store Manager Paul Carr explained that corrugated cardboard which forms some 75% of a food store's waste, formerly was burned in an incinerator. Now it is sent to paper mills to be used to make new boxes.

The St. Louis retail division of Kroger Food Stores, which is in charge of stores in this area, now has 57 of the compactor-balers in operation.

Each paper bale turned out by the huge machine weighs 750 pounds, compressed into a compact 22-by-16-by72 inches. The compacter-baler, which is 13 feet high and weighs five tons, condenses the paper (under 2,000 pounds-per-square-inch pressure) to a fraction of its original bulk, then automatically secures and ties the bale with wire.

Some 650 of the hydraulic compactor-balers have been installed in Kroger supermarkets across the country. Presently, use of the balers by Kroger at stores and warehouses is saving an estimated 70,000 acres of trees each year.

Saturday sessions will be held beginning at 8:30 a.m. in the Voigt Science Hall.

State Files Pollution Suit Against TRAA

Atty. Gen. William J. Scott has filed an air pollution complaint against the Terminal Railroad Association for the open burning of railroad ties in the East St. Louis area.

The complaint, which was filed on behalf of the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency, charges that the railroad, which owns and operates certain facilities and repair shops on Industrial Avenue, National City, "caused or allowed the open burning of refuse and railroad ties" at that location on Sept. 16, 1971.

The complaint requests a hearing date not less than 21 days after service of the complaint and further asks the Illinois Pollution Control Board to order the rail association to cease such alleged violations, pay a fine to be determined by the board and such further relief as the board deems necessary.

Afro Center Director To Speak at Campus

The director of the Center for the Study of African and Afro-American History at the University of Michigan will give a public speech at 11:30 a.m. Monday at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern.

Author-historian Harold Cruse will speak in the Mississippi Room of the University Center. Admission is free.

Cruse is author of the book "The Crisis of the Negro Intellectual," in which he attempts to explain why the growing political activity of the American black has not been accompanied by a comparable cultural movement. As a theater and film critic, Cruse has had many articles published in journals in this country and abroad.

Cruse's apeparance is sponsored by the SIU-SW department of historical studies.

WATERING GUIDE
EAST ST. LOUIS and INTERURBAN WATER CO.
AN AMERICAN WATER WORKS SYSTEM COMPANY

TYPE OF PLANT	FREQUENCY		METHODS	COMMENTS
	NEWLY-PLANTED	ESTABLISHED
Shade Trees	Once a week until firmly established.	Twice a month in Summer and Fall. Late Winter or early Spring soakings also may be required.	Slow running hose, or soaker hose. Use water lance for greater depth.	Soak ball when planting and continue once a week to fill root hole with water until ball has integrated with surrounding soil. Provide basin (ponding terrace) for future watering and regularly break up hard soil around tree base so water can soak in. Avoid "winter kill" by watering in Fall, Winter and Spring.
Evergreen Trees	Weekly, especially into Fall and Winter months.	Twice a month year around.
Evergreen Shrubs	Once a week.	Twice a month year around.	Soaker hose around base of several shrubs or slow running hose for single plants.	Lack of sub-surface moisture will kill evergreens any time of year. Other shrubs, though dormant in Winter, also require roof moisture to stay alive. Depth soaking to roots is required for all types of shrubs.
Other (such as burning bush)	Twice a week.	Once a week in growing season, and twice monthly in Fall and Spring.
Flower Gardens	Three times a week.	Once a week during growing season.	Soaker hose supplemented by sprinkling.	Flowers and vegetables use water rapidly. Soaking to depth of 6 to 12 inches is recommended in addition to above surface sprinkling when required to prevent leaf wilting.
Vegetable	Every other day until above ground.	Once a week during growing season.
Blue Grasses	Daily until established to keep surface moist.	Deeply once a week during any part of growing season.	Sprinkler, moved to cover entire area.	Newly laid sod should not be allowed to dry. Use water plentifully to integrate sod with the soil base. All grasses need soaking to depth of 5 to 6 inches. Some grasses go dormant in August but revive in late Summer if there is sufficient moisture.
	Daily until established.	Once a week during Summer months.	Soaker hose, used where slope permits water to spread.
Zoysia Other	Three times a week.	Once a week during Summer months.	Underground sprinkler system.

Urban Study, Environment, Physical Education Master Degree Programs Outlined

New master's degree programs in urban studies and environmental studies at Southern Illinois University - Southwestern will be offered in September, subject to approval by the Illinois Board of Higher Education.

Both graduate level programs were planned over a three-year period by faculty at SIU-SW. in consultation with outside experts, before approval by the SIU Board of Trustees, which met at Carbondale.

The proposed M.S. in urban studies is designed to assist in meeting the needs of the state and of municipalities around SIU-SW in planning and implementing solutions to complex urban problems.

The aim is to train competent professionals to play a leading role in urban development.

A principal emphasis will be to cooperate with public and private institutions to provide services in the Illinois portion of the St. Louis metropolitan area.

The proposed M.S. in environmental studies is designed to satisfy a need for individuals employed or contemplating employment in environmental programs. The program, like that in urban studies, will combine classroom instruction, research and community service.

The programs will be interdisciplinary, bringing in faculty members from disciplines such as anthropology, economics, government, management science, psychology, engineering, biology and philosophy.

Expected enrollment for the first year will be 15 students in each graduate level program.

The trustees were told that full implementation will depend on funding from the Board of Higher Education. Approximately $109,980 is needed to support the environmental studies program for its first year, with an estimated $121,530 needed to support the first year of the urban studies program.

A master of science degree in education with a specialization in physical education will be offered here beginning in September, the board decided.

Graduate level courses in physical education have been available at SIU-SW since 1965, but a formal specialization in physical education never was established.

Trustees were told the program can be initiated at an estimated cost of $11,100, mostly for library materials and supplies. The program is expected to attract 55 graduate level students in its first year.

The program was designed by the university's department of health, recreation and physical education after surveys showed a large percentage of physical education teachers in Southwestern Illinois, St. Louis and St. Louis County would do advanced degree work at SIU-SW if the opportunity arose.

May of the 300 undergraduate physical education majors at SIU-SW have expressed a strong interest in a graduate program with a specialization in physical education.

Area community colleges polled by the university favored establishment of the specialization, saying it would strengthen their curricula by providing expert leadership in the areas covered by the program.

This Area Has 27% of Region's Industrial Jobs

Unusual characteristics of manufacturing in this region of Illinois when compared with other areas of the state are pointed out in a study by a graduate student at SIU-SW.

In the study, John J. Murphy also describes the highly uneven distribution of manufacturing in the state. He notes that his detailing of regional patterns may be helpful for planners "working with agencies and industrial developers in an effort to determine where manufacturing fits into the urban and regional structure."

The Madison-St. Clair counties portion of the St. Louis manufacturing area is the second largest in Illinois in terms of total manufacturing employment. With 51,000 workers in manufacturing, it ranks ahead of six other manufacturing concentrations throughout Illinois described in the study.

The largest manufacturing concentration in Illinois is the northeastern area, centered in Chicago and covering seven counties.

With 1.1 million workers in manufacturing, the seven counties contain 74% of the state's labor manufacturing force, compared with 3.5% in Madison-St. Clair Counties.

But the "significantly different" character of manufacturing in Madison-St. Clair Counties is noteworthy in its implications for planning, says Murphy, currently a transportation planner for the East-West Gateway Coordinating Council in St. Louis.

Its character is not like the Chicago region, which has a concentrated core of manufacturing gradually thinning out into the fringe areas of the seven counties. Nor is it like the remaining manufacturing concentrations in Illinois, where a single city or a close clustering of cities has a major portion of manufacturing employment within a single county, he says.

Such concentrations, which Murphy terms "nodal," are located around Rockford; Danville; Peoria; Rock Island; Decatur-Springfield; and Streator-Ottawa-Peru-La Salle-Ogleseby.

Instead, says the study, the Madison-St. Clair Counties area combines the characteristics of the Chicago region and the six smaller concentrations to produce a unique configuration.

"This manufacturing area is an area of transition, or more specifically an area of nodal manufacturing centers which, taken as a whole, tend to possess" some characteristics of a manufacturing area.

"Manufacturing here is concentrated in four major locations," says the study. "Ninety-four per cent of the employes in manufacturing are in the four industrial communities of Alton-Wood River, the Tri-Cities, greater East St. Louis and greater Belleville.

"Using employment as a measure, the Alton-Wood River industrial community is the largest industrial area, employing 38%.

"The Tri-Cities rank second with 27% of the total, followed by greater East St. Louis (which includes East St. Louis, Sauget, Fairmont City, East Carondelet and Dupo) with 20% and greater Belleville (Belleville, Mascoutah, Millstadt, Freeburg and Smithton) with 9%."

Most of the remaining six per cent of the manufacturing labor force in Madison-St. Clair Counties is in Highland, Collinsville, O'Fallon and Edwardsville, the study says.

Murphy's study contains breakdowns of types of manufacturing in this region and in other concentrations within Illinois. The study was done under the supervision of the earth sciences department at SIU-SW.

4th Lewis-Clark Hike Scheduled May 13

The fourth annual Lewis and Clark Pilgrimmage for all Brownies, Girl Scouts, Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, Explorers and members of other boy or girl clubs will take place May 13, according to the planning committee, headed by Floyd Jordan Jr.

As in the past, all units must be accompanied by their leaders. The youngsters will gather at the Ship-to-shore radio station north of I-270 Chain of Rocks canal bridge and east of the Chain of Rocks canal.

They will procede from this point to the Lewis and Clark State Memorial park for a program to mark the 168th anniversary of the Lewis and Clark expedition.

Registration for the pilgrimmage will be held at the radio station beginning at 12:30 p.m. Leaders are responsible for registering their units.

Food and soft drinks will be sold at both the starting point and program area, or participants may bring their own sack lunches. Everyone is urged to bring his own drinking water.

The six-and-one-half mile hike sponsored by the Mitchell Lewis and Clark Pilgrimmage, Inc. The route has national Boy Scout Council approval as a historical hiking trail.

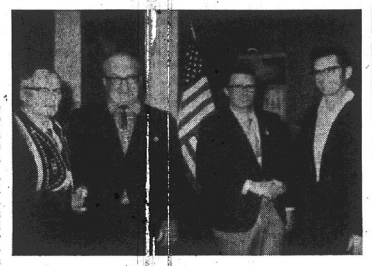

At the time of registration, leaders will receive a souvenir streamer for unit flag poles. A five-color embroidered emblem will be available to those participating in the hike. Cost of emblems will be $1 and is the only fee. Patches will be secured by the leaders at time of registration.

Information may be obtained from Floyd Jordan Jr. at 931-2897, or by writing 200 Warson Lane, Granite City.

Dr. Derge Will Move Into Controversial Residence

Plans have been approved to redesignate a $916,000 conference center as an official home for the president of the campus of Southern Illinois University at Carbondale.

The action by SIU's board of trustees returns the rambling, two-story stone and wood structure to its original purpose. A controversy over its cost halted construction in 1969.

After that, Chicago philanthropist W. Clement Stone gave the SIU Foundation $1 million in stock to finish the house. SIU already had spent $550,000 on the building when the Foundation — a non-profit organization handling gifts and bequests to SIU—took over.

By Friday's resolution, SIU will sell its investment in the residence to the Foundation for $550,000, using the money for a "President's Academic Excellence Program Fund." SIU will then lease the building back for use as an official president's residence. First-year lease will be $18,000, with year-to-year renewal options.

$45,000 Start-Up Costs

Richard Mager, SIU-Carbondale legal counsel, estimated start-up costs to open the house for President David R. Derge at $45,000.

Most of the expense will be for drapes and carpeting in the 15,000-square foot structure, he said. Other expenses under the estimate will include grass seeding, painting touch up, adjustment of long-dorman, equipment and other "necessary maintenance of things we've let go."

Mager said virtually all furniture will be that used by Derge in his present campus home, and other official furniture stored in the house. Derge will furnish his personal living quarters himself.

Mager said only two of five guest rooms in the residence will be furnished. The building, with the exception of Derge's private quarters, will be a "semi - public" facility," he said.

Derge said the recouped $550,000 will be put into a fund for such projects are research on improvement of teaching, special tutoring for new students, teaching evaluation, honors and independent study programs for superior students and support or strengthening of projects to "extend university resources in aid of the development of Southern Illinois" and other related programs.

The SIU Foundation must wait until January 1973 to cash in Stone's stock gift.

New Duties for Prof. Ellsworth At Local Campus

Appointment of a new assistant vice-president at SIU-SW has been approved by the Southern Illinois University board.

John Ellsworth, professor of government and public affairs at SIU-SW, will serve also as assistant vice-president for extramural and interdisciplinary programs. He had been serving as associate dean of the Graduate School.

Since coming here in 1966, Ellsforth also had been chairman of the department of government and public affairs. A resident of Edwardsville, he earned his Ph.D. degree from the Claremont, Calif., Graduate School.

Other appointments approved by the trustees included:

S. Joseph Gore, associate professor of secondary education, to serve also as assistant dean of undergraduate programs in the Education Division.

Harry Lutz to serve as director of auxiliary services in Auxiliary Services and Enterprises on the Southwestern campus. Lutz has been manager of Auxiliary Services and Enterprises.

The board awarded a $65,915 contract for construction of parking facilities at the Tower Lake recreation area on the local campus.

The award was to DeGerlia General Hauling & Excavating Co., East Alton.

The trustees also approved retention of Robert W. Hunt Engineers, St. Louis, at fee not to exceed $1,000 to conduct compaction tests at the site.

Parking has been allowed in a field adjacent to the recreation area because of poor existing facilities. The field has deteriorated, with dust a major problem in dry weather and minor rainfalls turning the dust into hazardous mud, it was noted.

The trustees approved a compromise payment of $23,206 to Hellmuth, Obata and Kassabaum, Inc., Architects, for additional fees the firm claimed for work on a proposed addition to the Communications Building on the local campus.

The board had voted in February to terminate the proposed $4.1 million addition to the Communications Building because bids received exceeded funds available for the project.

At the time of termination, Hellmuth, Obata and Kassabaum had been paid the full amount owed by the university for services rendered through the bidding stage. The firm, however, submitted supplemental billings of $50,637 for services required by the contract with the trustees.

A review of the claim by university officials found it to be only partially supportable, the board was told. Negotiations between John Paul Davis, legal assistant to President John S. Rendelman, and attorneys for the architectural firm resulted in the compromise figure.

Gifted Program Scheduled for Summer School

An enrichment program for academically superior and talented students who presently are in grades four, five or six will be offered by the Granite City School District this summer at the same time as the regular summer school program.

Classes will be held at Coolidge Junior High School Mondays through Fridays from June 5 through July 21. Class hours will be from 8:45 to 11:45 a.m. each day.

The Gifted Program will be sponsored by the school district with Sally Sowell as director and Calvin Bartels as principal of the summer school.

Coolidge Junior High School was chosen for the program because of its facilities for science, dramatics, library and similar fields of study.

A fee of $2.50 for book rental and supplies will be charged. The fee and application for entry must be turned in at the school building by Friday, school officials said.

Twenty-seven classes will be offered. Each child participating must enroll in at least two instructional units. Each unit will be one hour and 20 minutes in length, and the student may choose any two units he wishes.

Parents have been requested not to enroll their children if they will be absent more than two weeks during the school period for camp, Bible School, vacations or other reasons.

Subjects offered in the Gifted Program will include astronomy, band-intermediate, creative arts and crafts, creative dramatics, ecology, engine repair and theory, experimental science, German-beginning, German-intermediate, human anatomy, imaginative writing, industrial arts-boys and girls.

Junior muny opera, knitting and nedlecraft-boys and girls, mathematics for summer fun, microscope usage and slide making, nature study, oceanography, prehistoric times, reading for fun, Russian, Spanish-intermediate, speed reading, typing intermediate, use of the library.

Park Programs Topic of Protestant Welfare Meet

Harold Brown, superintendent of the Granite City Park District, spoke on the various programs available to park district residents that are planned and sponsored by the park board, and illustrated his speech with colored slides of various activities at the annual dinner meeting of Protestant Welfare Association at St. John United Church of Christ.

Clarence Baumeyer served as master of ceremonies and welcomed the 110 dinner guests. He introduced Mrs. Irma Taylor who served as chairman of the event.

The Rev. Paul Surbey, pastor of the host church, gave the invocation, followed by an opening address by Roy M. Lynn, president of the association.

Musical entertainment was provided by Miss Karen Gauen, soloist, accompanied at the piano by Miss Betty Baker.

Officers Introduced

Officers of the association were introduced by Baumeyer. They are Lynn, president; Bryan Waggoner, first vice-president; Willard Messer, second vice-president; Mrs. Minnie Dillard, treasurer; Mrs. Ernestine Hahn, secretary; and Mrs. Marie Whittle, office secretary.

A review of the past year's accomplishments was given with emphasis on the Mobile Meals program that is in its second year and is conducted by volunteer workers entirely. St. Elizabeth Hospital prepares the meals for the elderly, ill and indigent according to the diet prescribed by their physicians. Volunteers deliver the hot meals during the noon hour, five days a week.

Volunteer workers are from various churches and civic organizations. Mrs. Whittle, office secretary, gave the report and announced volunteers are always needed. Anyone interested in the program may call 876-8770 or 877-1184 for more information.

Mrs. Whittle announced the Protestant Welfare office handled 464 cases involving 1,759 persons during 1971. A total of 336 emergency relief orders, 65 Christmas grocery orders amounting to $7,062, and orders taken from the Store Room amounting to $1,667 also were handled.

As an added public service wheel chairs, hospital beds, "walkers" and crutches are available at the office and are loaned to the public.

Most of the association funds are received from the United Fund, but donations always are needed to continue the Mobile Meals program. Those served are on a low income and cannot pay for this service.

GSI Expects to Operate in Black This Year; Loss Cut

Net sales for General Steel Industries, Inc., rose to $29,862,000 for the three months ended March 31, compared with sales of $14,266,000 in the first quarter of 1971, W. Ashley Gray, Jr., president has announced.

He said the company's first quarter loss was reduced to $410,000, or 16 cents per share of common stock, this year compared with a loss of $1,087,000, or 43 cents per share, for the same period in 1971.

"Except for the impact of a strike at our Castings Division," Mr. Gray told the annual meeting of stockholders, "GSI would have operated in the black for the first quarter of this year." The annual meeting was held at the Castings Division office in Granite City.

"The annual report indicated that we expected 1972 to be the year GSI would start moving into the turnaround we have been working so hard to achieve," Gray said.

"Although St. Louis Car will not make a contribution to earnings this year and the Castings Division is operating at a depressed level, our forecasts indicate the second quarter of 1972 will see GSI return to the black and we are encouraged by the fact that most of our divisions are reporting sales ahead of last year."

Severe Problems

Discussing GSI's losses in 1970 and 1971, Gray said these were "a direct result of severe problems encountered at our St. Louis Car Division." He said the Car division has now delivered 70 of the 130 double-deck commuter cars ordered by the Chicago South Suburban Mass Transit District and 74 of 352 rapid transit cars ordered by the New York City Transit Authority.

The Chicago cars are being produced at the scheduled rate of two per week, he said, and production of the NYCTA cars is expected to reach two per day by the end of the second quarter.

In his comments at the annual meeting, Gray disclosed that GSI's St. Louis Car Division had teamed with the Westinghouse Electric Corporation, with Westinghouse the prime contractor and St. Louis Car the principal subcontractor, in bidding recently on an order for 900 new subway cars for the New York City Transit Authority.

Although St. Louis Car has built more subway cars for New York than any other builder, Gray said, it never has had great enough resources to meet the fiscal requirements set forth for prime bidders on the 900-car contract, the largest single order for transit cars in history.

However, Gray added, the Pullman-Standard Division of the Pullman Corporation bid substantially lower than the Westinghouse-St. Louis Car combination and two other bidders.

"There will be other transit car bidding opportunities," Gray said, "and we will continue to evaluate them for possible profit opportunities. Meanwhile, St. Louis Car is busy with its two present orders."

Gray said GSI successfully has negotiated an extension of the short term obligations, originally due April 28, 1972, to Nov. 30, 1972, "by which time we anticipate that our short-term borrowing requirements will be substantially reduced."

The six divisions and one subsidiary company which comprise General Steel Industries, Inc., supply a wide range of industrial and other markets. In addition to St. Louis Car and the Castings Division, other GSI operations are:

National Roll Division, Avonmore, Pennsylvania; Standard Pipeprotection Division, St. Louis and additional plants in other areas; Flex-O-Lite Division, St. Louis, Ludlow-Saylor Wire Cloth Division, St. Louis, and plants in City of Industry and Oakland, California; and Simplicity Engineering Co., Durand, Michigan.

Number of State Checks Sets New Record -- Howlett

Copley News Service

Springfield—A new record was set last month by State Auditor Michael J. Howlett's office when more than one million state checks were written.

A check of Howlett's records shows that this is 189,000 more than were written in February and 26.3% more than in March, 1971. For the first nine months of the current 1972 fiscal year, which started last July 1, 1971, a total of 7,598,970 checks have been issued. This is a gain of 24.5% over the same period in fiscal 1971.

Auditor Howlett, who is the Democratic Party's nominee for secretary of state, said, "the story of the tremendous growth of state government can be seen in the tabulation of warrants written. The record number of checks issued last month is two and a half times the 378,352 that were written in January 1961, my first month in the auditor's office."

A report in Howlett's office shows that of the checks written in March, more than half — 549,039 — were for public assistance or public aid recipients. A total of 62,006 were issued for payments for medical services to the indigent. Salary checks for state employes totaled 171,902 and 56,390 were written to retired government employees. There were 137,780 checks written as payments to commercial vendors doing business with the state and 23,000 were for motor fuel tax refunds.

Operation of the auditor's office is in sharp contrast to the steady increase in size and cost of state government generally.

Reduced Work Force

"Since I was elected in 1960," Howlett said, "the total work force of state government has nearly doubled, and the state budget generally has doubled and redoubled. But we are doing more work today without increasing the staff over what it was when I was elected."

The auditor added, "while we write two and a half times as many checks now as we did then and do more work with every pay check, it costs the taxpayers less to write each check today than it did then."

For instance in 1961, the only deductions from payroll checks were for federal income tax and state retirement funds. Now deductions are made for state income tax, social security, insurance premiums, savings bonds, United Fund contributions; labor union and state employes association dues, credit union payments as well as the federal income tax and state retirement.

Howlett maintains increased productivity per manhour of the employes is the key to his record of economy in the operation of his office. He quickly adds, "we have applied successfully the business principles I learned as a steel company executive. We spent money for research and development which helped us to keep costs down."

Airman Kenneth Cable Graduates as Mechanic

Airman Kenneth M. Cable, son of Mr. and Mrs. Virl M. Cable, 2516 E. 28th St., has graduated at Sheppard AFB, Tex., from the U. S. Air Force aircraft mechanic course conducted by the Air Training Command.

The airman, who was trained to repair current Air Force jet fighters, is being assigned to Cannon AFB, N. M., for duty with a unit of the Tactical Air Command which provides combat units for air support of U. S. ground forces. Airman Cable is a 1971 graduate of Granite City High School.

County Homemakers Install Mrs. Brave

Mrs. Robert (Ruth) Brave of Granite City was elected and installed as president of the Madison County Homemakers Extension Association at the oragnization's 36th annual meeting Monday.

More than 300 members, presenting 30 county homemakers units, attended the all day conference and heard Mrs. Don Kelly, president of the Illinois Homemakers Extension Federation, present a program, entitled "Echoes From Norway."

Mrs. Kelly, a resident of Robinson, related highlights of the triennial conference of the Associated Country Women of the World she attended last fall in Oslo, Norway. She illustrated her talk with colored slides showing homemakers, businesses, farms and families in that country.

"Broadening Our Horizons" was the theme for the day's activities which began at 10 a.m. Opening the morning portion of the program was Mrs. Guy DeChiara, county president.

A welcome was offered by Mrs. Gerald Stahlhut, Northeast District chairman and Dr. Andrew Kochman, SIU-SW vice-president and provost. Mrs. Mary Knecht, former associate adviser, gave the invocation.

Group singing was led by Mrs. Leroy Bollinger, accompanied by Mrs. Charles Gardner. Mrs. H. H. Meyenburg directed the members and guests in the pledge of allegiance.

Mrs. Florence Hendricks read the minutes of the 1971 annual meeting. Mrs. William Stutz, county second vice-president, gave the membership report. The budget for the county was presented by Mrs. Richard Gusewelle, treasurer.

HOMEMAKERS PRESIDENT. Mrs. Robert Brave of Granite City, left, newly installed president of the Madison County Homemakers Extension Association, discusses the program at the group's 36th annual meeting with Mrs. William Flanigan of Troy, first vice president. U. S. and Norwegian flags in foreground reflect the program theme—'Broadening Our Horizons.'

Past presidents introduced were Mesdames Clara Long, Ralph Culp, T. E. Albrecht, Alma Eilers, O. L. Plocher, Virgil Davis, Larman Engelke, Fred Andrew, Wilbur Hendricks and Harold Kriege. Guests were introduced from Monroe County.

Reports on extension activities during 1971 were given by extension advisers, Catherine Mauck, Bonnie Nelson and Darlene Heer. Program Assistant Janie Kemp of Madison told of the "Expanded Food and Nutrition Education Program" in the Quad-City area.

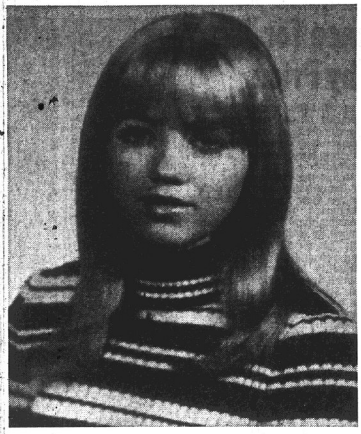

Mrs. C. C. Losch presented the slate of officers for election, including Mrs. Brave, president; Mrs. William Flanigan, Troy, first vice-president; Mrs. James Early, New Douglas, secretary; Mrs. Gene Luner, Collinsville, family life, recreation and international chairman; Mrs. Leslie Coulson, Collinsville, public information chairman; Mrs. Gilbert Fosto, Alhambra, 4-H chairman; Mrs. Kermit Ratzke, Edwardsville, clothing chairman; and Mrs. Carl Baumann, Highland, foods, nutrition and health chairman.

Officers and directors remaining in the same post are Mrs. William Stutz, Bethalto, second vice-president; Mrs. Richard Gusewelle, Hamel, treasurer; Mrs. H. H. Meyenburg Alton, citizenship and safety chairman; Mrs. Lorvain Vieth, Edwardsville, creative arts chairman; and Mrs. Clifford Stahlhut, Edwardsville, home furnishings and home management chairman. Mrs. Betty Kelly installed the officers and directors.

Mrs. William Stutz presented the membership awards. The Florence Johnson Traveling Gavel was awarded to the Roxana unit for the largest percentage net gain of members in membership. Receiving honorable mention was Holiday Shores unit.

Blue ribbon recognition went to the Bluff, Granite City and Wood River units. Collinsville unit was recognized having the most members present, and Bluff unit had the largest percentage of members in attendance.

Luncheon entertainment was provided by the Merry Madelines. Decorations for the day followed the "Broadening Our Horizons" theme and featured construction paper models of "horizons" extending from an American to a Norwegian flag.

Moorish Influence in Portgual, Spain Described to Travel Club

Miss Dorothy Hoedebeck "shared a journey to Portugal, Morocco and Spain" with members of Travelers Abroad at a meeting held Monday evening at Prather Junior High School.

Highlighting a tour of Lisbon was a visit to St. George castle, a former moorish stronghold and the Jeronimos' monastery, where Vasco DaGamo is buried, Miss Hoedebeck explained.

The narrow twisting streets and Moorish architecture are most notable in the old cities of Spain and Portugal, she pointed out.

Crossing the straits of Gibraltar, between the "pillars of Hercules," Miss Hoedebeck said she visited Tangiers, an ancient smugglers' port. The Moorish influence also is predmoninant here in the sultan's house and the Casbah area, where veiled women haggle with street merchants for items they need for the home and family.

Men can be seen in the streets selling water from goat skin bags, and beggars are everywhere, Miss Hoedebeck said.

Following an ancient camel trail leading to Fez, one of Morocco's oldest and most beautiful cities, the traveler sees a definite Eastern influence, she commented.

Miss Hoedebeck also visited Meknes and Robat, traveling on to Granada in Spain to view the magnificent cathedrals, fountains and flowers.

She also toured Toledo, famous for steel and flamenco dancers, and enjoyed the music of gypsy guitars through Don Quinatie's LaManca country enroute to Madrid.

The royal palace in Madrid, built by the Bourbons in the 18th century, is of special interest to visitors she said. The Prad museum, where masterpieces of famous artists from all over the world are displayed, similarly provided an interesting experience, Miss Hoedebeck told club members.

Patricia Nelson To Be Married

The engagement of Miss Patricia Nelson and Richard McCart and plans for a wedding on Sept. 9 are being announced today by the bride-elect's parents, Mrs. Ruby Rokita of Granite City and George Nelson, 3029 Buxton Ave.

Mr. McCart is a son of Mrs. Shirley McCart, 100 Briarhaven Drive and Earl McCart of Granite City. He is attending Lewis and Clark Junior College where he is majoring in law enforcement. He also is employed at Universal Box Co., in St. Louis.

The bride-to-be will be graduated in June from Granite City High School and also from the Granite City School of Beauty Culture.

SIU French Professor to Visit Africa

Mrs. Fritz (Gertrude) Marti of Collinsville, assistant professor of French at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern campus, will fly to Africa May 8 for interviews with French African writers and other Africans in the arts.

Under a grant for the department of foreign languages and literature at SIU-SW Mrs. Marti will spend two weeks in Dakar, Senegal; two on the Ivory Coast and two in Cameroun.

Her itinerary is being arranged by Leon Damas, whom she calls "one of the 'Big Three' black writers of French literature of the 1930s. It was Damas who started the Negritude movement," Mrs. Marti said. "He is advising my trip. I couldn't do it without him."

Interviews with African scholars will be taped and possibly pictorially recorded, Mrs. Marti said. "The purpose of the trip is manifold," she said. "We want to have the French voice and accent of people whose language it is, but from countries other than France. We want to hear their opinions on the influence of the whole Negritude movement, not only upon literature, but upon the people themselves.

"I am collecting questions from my colleagues and friends so we will have, in a sense, a dialogue between black French writers and American writers, both black and white," she explained.

"Our country developed from the culture and language of England, but we have changed it and it has formed us," the SIU-SW French teacher said. "I hope to find out to what extent Africa has been affected by France."

Because of its high percentage of blacks, Mrs. Marti believes SIU-SW has a special need for the information she hopes to glean from her trip to Africa. "We plan to introduce at SIU-SW a new course in French literature by black writers. This is important in today's body of literature," she said.

Mrs. Maxwell Is Hostess to Club

Mrs. Vernon Tharp gave a delightful and interesting program on "Friendship" and what it means to each person at a meeting of Chapter KU of the PEO Sisterhood Monday night. Members met in the home of Mrs. Bob Maxwell, 24 Devon Hill Lane.

Mrs. William Burcky, president, conducted the business session and introduced a guest, Mrs. Cordie Miles of Princeton, Ill. She is the mother of Jane Rossnagel, a member of the group.

Final plans were discussed to attend the Illinois state convention, set May 17-19 at the Sheraton-Jefferson Hotel in St. Louis.

The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Melva Naffziger on May 9.

Dear Nana--Seeing Eye Dog Foundation Warns of Fraud Scheme Involving Stamps

By JACKIE STEFANICH
Copley News Service

I read the attached item in our paper, regarding collecting cancelled stamps for Seeing Eye dogs.

As I am a member of a club of 350 women, I thought it would be a good project to start, especially since we all get so many cards at Christmas, which would mean lots of canceled stamps.

Not being able to read your column constantly and perhaps thus finding out where to send these canceled stamps, I wrote directly to the Seeing Eye Foundation in Los Angeles and quote a portion of their reply:

"Seeing Eye Dog Foundation has received your letter of Oct. 31, 1971, inquiring about the canceled postage stamps. This appears to be one of the numerous rumors that appears from time to time concerning the giving of guide dogs to the blind. We know of no truth to this current rumor.

"Since a guide dog is valued at between $3,000 and $4,000 at the time that it is given to a student, it would require a huge amount of canceled stamps."

So, here goes my project plans. However, I'm sure you will want to check into this yourself and straighten out those of us who read this article. Evidently, this person "K. G." has been bilked by someone and has enriched this bilker's coffers with the money they made from selling the canceled stamps.

L. M. F.

Thank you very much for sending me these facts from the Seeing Eye Dog Foundation.

And I'll certainly contact K. G. immediately as she seemed quite sure of her source of information regarding this project.

I'm sure she and her friends who have contributed to such a worthy cause will want to know that they may be the victims of a con artist.

Dear Nana:

I saw your request for old neckties in our paper last week.

First, I want to say that I have seen one quilt made from ties and it was a thing of beauty but it must take a lot of patience.

I've tried to give mine away but nobody wants to tackle such a job.

I have about 25 ties which you can have if you are not snowed under by now.

Perhaps you know of somebody else who would like them. I am a man 77 years old and I can spare them.

Dear J. S.:

Thank you for your generous offer of your old neckties.

And if you don't feel the postage would be too prohibitive, mail them to me. I do have several church organizations that could use them.

Dear Nana:

I saw this announcement of Mrs. Boody's diet and health classes in today's paper. I realize it's too late to tell your readers about it but I thought I'd send it anyway.

I think that you are welcome to drop into her classes anytime and learn about them.

Her articles are in the Green Sheet every Sunday.

Remember that I told you that I'd lost 20 pounds during eight weeks?

I've never eaten such a variety of foods in my life and still lost weight.

I could have lost more but I fell by the wayside a couple of times. Our figs were ripe and I hated to see them go to waste.

E. D.

Dear E. D.:

Although I do appreciate your advising me about Mrs. Boody's diet and health classes, my column appears in many newspapers throughout the United States and it wouldn't be of any benefit to those who don't live in your area.

However, I'll contact Mrs. Boody to see if it's possible she'll be having classes in other areas in the future.

Ladies Coterie Elects Mrs. Horn

Mrs. Ray Horn was elected president of the Ladies Coterie at its April meeting held last week in the home of Mrs. Walter Johnson, 2842 State St.

Twenty-three members attended the session and repeated the Lord's Prayer in unison to open the program.

Elected to serve with Mrs. Horn during 1972-73 are: Mrs. Marvin Eddington, vice-president; Mrs. E. H. Theis, secretary; Mrs. Al Pape, assistant secretary; and Mrs. James Fox, treasurer.

Installation ceremonies will be held at a May 18 luncheon meeting at the Sunset Hills Country Club.

Mrs. W. G. Cooley presetned Mrs. Johnson, the retiring president with an award received at a recent District 22 meeting. The citation was given in recognition of the Coterie enrolling more new members than any other district organization.

It was announced that several members will take part in the Meals on Wheels program this week. Volunteers who will assist include Mesdames B. W. Miller, L. Haggaman, Clarence Boettiger, Jack Cormier and Horn.

The meeting concluded with a silent prayer in memory of Mrs. Della Pauly.

Mrs. L. A. Garner will serve as hostess for the May 4 meeting at First United Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Miles Is Feted at Party.

A surprise dinner party honoring Mrs. Margaret B. Miles on her birthday was given this week by her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miles, in their home, 2209 Lynch Ave.

Out-of-town guests attending were Mr. and Mrs. Tony LaPiana and children, Janet and Don, and Mr. and Mrs. Steve Gregorovic and children, Dave, Don and Karen, all of Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Swich of Cape Girardeau, Mo., and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ellis of Collinsville.

Local guests were Mr. and Mrs. John Keene, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Beasley, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Beasley, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Beasley and daughter, Pam, Mrs. Martha Miles and children, Keith, Terri and Craig, the honoree's husband, Thomas Miles, and Andrea and Randy Miles, the hosts' children.

Mobile Home Tax to Be Collected Here

An ordinance providing for the collection of the Madison County privilege tax on mobile homes in Granite City was adopted by the City Council Monday night.

The new tax, which will replace property taxes on mobile homes, will be collected in Granite City for the county treasurer who then will distribute funds to taxing agencies on a proportionate basis.

According to the county ordinance, incorporated by the City Council, the owner of every inhabited mobile home shall, 30 days before June 1, file with the county treasurer a mobile home registration form. If the form is accompanied by a receipt for taxes paid for the current year, no further privilege tax shall be imposed for the remainder of the current tax year.

The license fee set by the county is 15 cents per square foot of floor space. The annual billing date is set on July 1 of each year.

Worker Assistance for Job Loss Proposed by Price

American workers losing their jobs because of increased imports would receive increased trade adjustment assistance under a bill Cong. Melvin Price, (D-East St. Louis) is introducing.

Titled the Worker's Readjustment Assistance Act, the Price bill completely revamps and reforms the existing trade adjustment assistance program authorized in the 1962 Trade Expansion Act.

"It simply has not worked," Cong. Price emphasized. "There is to much at stake to not have an effective program that protects the American worker."

Cong. Price pointed out that it was not until November 1969 that the first petition for adjustment assistance was approved by the Tariff Commission, 7 years after enactment of the 1962 Act. To date, only 30 favorable decisions out of 66 petitions have been rendered.

Citing the workers of the now closed American Zinc plant in East St. Louis as possible beneficiaries of the new measure, the Illinois Democrat said, "the cumbersome procedures under existing law leave much to be desired."

Under the 1962 Act, the Tariff Commission, which in Cong. Price's view "is completely unresponsive to the American working man" would be replaced by twelve regional councils that would administer the program and determine worker eligibility for assistance. Nine council members appointed by the Secretary of Labor would be equally divided among labor, industry and public representatives.

Other Reforms Listed

Other reforms in the Price bill include:

Workers would have only to show that unemployment or underemployment had been brought on by an appreciable increase in imports or by an appreciable decline in production for export. Under current law an increase in imports has to be shown to be the major cause of injury.

The requirement that the increase in imports causing injury must arise from a trade concession would be dropped.

The 1½ to 3 year employment requirement prior to separation would be shortened to 1 year. The existing povision discriminates against new labor force participants who are least protected by other means.

Readjustment assistance payments would be increased to 100% of average weekly wages and would continue for 1 year, or a year and a half if the worker were undergoing retraining.

Relocation allowances would no longer be limited to heads of families. Present law offers no help to young workers who may want to transfer from a hopeless employment situation.

"In the long run," Cong. Price declared, "our future well-being and world peace are linked to a multilateral, nondiscriminatory fair trade system. In the short run, however, our workers must be protected. The American worker has been disillusioned too long, and rightfully so, because he has been unable to obtain assistance under existing law. We must keep faith with him."

Norfolk & Western Income Rises 13%

Norfolk and Western Railway Company's first quarter net income rose to $23.9 million, an increase of 13% from the $21.1 million reported a year ago, the company announced Monday. Primary earnings per share were $2.24, up 14% from $1.97 a share for the first quarter of 1971.

Operating revenues for the quarter were $196.6 million, compared with $194.7 million for the 1971 period. Expenses were $135.5 million for the quarter, versus $135.4 million a year ago.

Consolidated net income for the N&W System was $20.6 million, or $1.93 a primary share, compared with net income of $20.1 million, or $1.88 a share a year earlier. Consolidated operating revenues declined to $274.3 million from revenues of $275.1 million a year ago. Expenses were $199.6 million, compared with $199.8 million for the 1971 period.

Consolidated figures include Dereco, Inc., and its wholly-owned subsidiaries, Erie Lackawanna Railway Co. and Delaware and Hudson Railway Co.

The figures are based on Interstate Commerce Commission accounting regulations.

Was Playhouse 90 Best Television Show Ever?

By DON FREEMAN
Copley News Service

Hollywood—Quick now, what's the very best television series you can remember?

This question was posed not long ago by Action, the Directors Guild of America publication, with answers supplied by a number of television critics.

There was one limitation — the selections were to be made from comedy and dramatic series—not variety show or special broadcasts.

Beyond that, the choice could be made on the basis of general excellence, innovation and on the strongest tug to the memory.

As a fellow who has seen a few series come and go, I was fascinated by the results.

My own nominee was "Playhouse 90," which turned up as a runaway winner in the view of my colleagues.

Next in order came "Studio One," another dramatic anthology.

In fact, one highly respected critic, Judith Crist, found herself in a quandry.

"I feel that 'Studio One" and 'Playhouse 90' score highly for originality and general excellence," Miss Crist wrote. "It's a tossup."

Of the dozen series chosen by the reviewers, four were anthologies, three were contemporary dramas, four were comedies and one a western.

Well, sort of a western—you wouldn't call "Maverick" a western, exactly, the Old West being a locale for its mischievous con gameship as practiced with satiric slyness and enormous skill by James Garner.

"Following "Playhouse 90" and "Studio One," the crtics' choices were, in order:

"The Defenders," "Alfred Hitchcock Presents," "U. S. Steel Hour," "I Love Lucy" the original Dick Van Dyke Show, "Naked City," "Mission: Impossible," "You'll Never Get" Rich (the Phil Silvers Show), "The Honeymooners" with Jackie Gleason and Art Carney, and "Maverick."

Could it be that memories do mellow? Of the foregoing, only one remains in production and that is "'Mission: Impossible."

Several of the others were enacted live and are, of course, gone forever; the rest are seen occasionally in syndication reruns.

Among the runners-up to this golden dozen were: "Mister Peepers," "Philco-Goodyear Playhouse," "East Side-West Side," "Perry Mason," "Robert Montgomery Presents," "Star Trek," "The Fugitive," "Run For Your Life," "Gunsmoke," "I Spy," Andy Griffith, "Get Smart," "Father Knows Best" and "The Untouchables."

One serious omission here, by my reckoning, is "Leave It To Beaver," undoubtedly the class of the kids' comedy shows—one that still endures and still, despite the vast changes in our lives and in childhood itself, remains on target.

Of all the shows listed above, I suppose my own strongest sentimental attachment is to the old Phil Silvers Show, which was surefire barracks humor, a staple of entertainment since Caesar's legions complained about the salad in the mess hall. Caesar salad, I believe it was called.

Phil Silvers is a veteran of that great old training ground, burlesque, and on this show he drew on all of those wonderful old skills of the top banana.

One moment Silvers' face would be a mask of cherubic innocence; the next it would be alight with malevolent and profitable cunning.

M. Sgt. Ernest Bilko—a great name that — was, in short, one of the most memorable characters ever created for the tube, a cardsharp, promoter and master swindler of the barracks and a prototype of a figure familiar to anyone who ever donned a uniform.

I can recall one episode where the chaplain says to our hero: "Bilko, you're a gambler, a sharpshooter and a promoter. You're everything Sm here to prevent the soldiers from becoming.

Actually, Bilko wasn't all that bad.

Bilko was the sort of a fellow who swindled for the principle and the pleasure of it rather than the money.

His mind was alive with little stratagems to unloose the unwary of their dough for the sheer delight of achievement.

And if the prey was too easy —or his conscience grew heavy —he would even return the loot. He was a lovable old swindler, was Sgt. Bilko, and he is missed.

State Emphasizing Jobs for Elderly

As senior citizens are honored annually during the month of May, the 78 Illinois State Employment Service Offices throughout the state are placing special emphasis on a year-round employment service program for older workers.

M. A. Thompsen, manager of the Granite City ISES office, announced that the local office will engage in an intensive campaign during the month of May to encourage employers to consider older workers for employment.

Although May spearheads the activity, Illinois has a continuing Older Worker Program (for those 40 years and over) aimed at placing this segment of the available population in permanent employment wherever possible.

Industry often overlooks the older worker as an invaluable resource of experience, skills and good judgment. Employers are urged to contact the local office of the Illinois State Employment Service to hire workers on the basis of ability, not age, Mr. Thompson said.

Science Club Sells Fire Extinguishers

The Science Club of Granite City High School is conducting a fire safety campaign. U. S. statistics regarding fires for 1971 reveal more than 12,000 deaths by fire, with 330,000 persons burned or injured, and property damage almost 3 billion.

To demonstrate their concern and to help the citizens, the the students have completed arrangements with the Fire and Safety Products Co. to make available a new carbon dioxide fire extinguisher. The extinguisher will be sold at a special price of $3.25 each or two for $6.

It is safe for use on fires such as gas, oil, grease, carburetors, chemicals, cars and live electrical fires. About 98% of all fires start small enough to be put out quickly—if a small extinguisher is handy.

The students urge everyone to take advantage of their offer now and be fire safe. Orders can be placed by calling 876-9084 or 931-4153 after 4 p.m. David Baumberger is president of the club, and Ralph Rotter is the sponsor.

Visiting Russian Students Decry American Criticism

By GARY SCHNEIDER
Press-Record Staff Writer

"Even during the worst of our troubles, Amercans never were depicted as badly in Russia as Russians were in America," Vladimir Kavtaradze, a Russian university student, told a group gathered at Southern Illinois University - Southwestern Monday.

Kavtaradze is one of three students who are touring the United States and are addressing students at six universities, including SIU-SW, during the trip.

Other Russian students were Levon Saakyan and Nickolai N. Mukhin. Kavtaradze is a member of the Presidium of the Committee of Youth Organizations of the U.S.S.R., Saakyan is the first secretary of the youth leaders of the Republic of Armenia, and Mukhin is secretary of the student organization of Moscow State University.

The two-week trip marks the first organized speaking tour made by Soviet citizens in the U.S.

Address News Conference

The three students addressed a news conference at 1:15 p.m. Monday and spoke at 8:15 p.m. in the Communications Building Theater to about 350 persons.

They were greeted at the theater by about 30 students carrying signs protesting persecution of Soviet Jews. Several students said they represented the Hillel Jewish Students' Association at SIU-Carbondale and others said they represented the Student Struggle for Soviet Jewry organization at Washington University, St. Louis.

Despite the protest demonstration and some boos and hisses as the Soviets took their places on the theater stage, the reception basically was warm and friendly. They spoke briefly to the gathering then began a discussion on "How Might the U.S. and U.S.S.R. Contribute to the Cause of Peace?" with three SIU-SW students. The SIU students were Jeff Burns of O'Fallon, Lee Hamby of Alton and Robert Lapp of Omaha, Neb.

War is Obstacle

Mukhin said the Vietnam war is one of the major stumbling blocks in the path of improved U.S. and U.S.S.R. relations.

He said the future of relations between the two countries, however, is bright and may yield cooperation rather than peaceful co-existence. Fields where cooperation is possible he said are science, trade, culture and arms reductions.

Admitting that President Richard M. Nixon's planned trip to Russia has been reduced from a state visit to a summit meeting, the three agreed that the trip still may be helpful to both countries in assisting in the establishment of better relations.

They would not deny that increased bombing in North Vietnam by the U.S. may be responsible for Nixon's visit being downgraded in Russia.

"There are many common grounds about which our two countries can agree despite numerous differences in ideology," Kavtaradze said. "We see Americans as imperialistic; capitalistic and monopolistic, very monopolistic, and I believe that is a true description," he added.

Americans tend to see Russians as sneaky and evil, which is not at all a true description, the Russian said. "Americans think Russia has no democracy while democracy has been cherished for 57 years in the Soviet Union," he added.

Plight of Jews

During the discussion, Lapp told the visitors that the plight of the Soviet Jews has led some analysts to believe Russia is regressing to the days of Stalin, which drew loud cheering from the audience.

Kavtaradze said that more than 10,000 Jesw had immigrated from the Soviet Union, but that the move could not be construed as a sign of discrimination. He said that three Soviet Jews imprisoned for attempting to hijack a Soviet airplane deserved to be imprisoned.

"In Russia, anyone who acts against the state must go up on the shield," he said, holding his fist into the air.

The visit of the three Russians to SIU-SW was arranged by Robert H. Hall, associate executive seccretary of the Speech Communication Association, who also spoke at the presentation. Dan Salden, director of forensics at SIU-SW, coordinated the students' appearance at the campus.

'Acre of Art' Show at GCHS Gym Monday

Approximately 13,000 pieces of art work prepared by pupils from kindergarten through the Grade 12 level in the Granite City School District will be exhibited Monday evening in the annual "Acre of Art Show" at Memorial Gymnasium at Granite City High School.

Eugene Aiassi, administrative consultant for art education in the local school system, said the hours for viewing the display by the public will be from 6 to 9:30 p.m. Monday.

Admission is free, but voluntary contributions will be accepted, the art consultant noted. Proceeds derived from the exhibition will be used by the Granite City Area Parent-Teacher Council to provide a cash scholarship for a graduating senior art student.

The show is sponsored each year by the Area PTA Council and the Art Education Department of Granite City School District.

Different types of art creations to be featured will include oils, charcoal, tempra, pencil and other forms, Aiassi said, adding that none of the works are displayed for judging.

Although the paintings and art pieces exhibited are not priced for sale to the public, patrons at the show may purchase items through the individual student artist, the educator explained.

Theft from Truck

Raymond Reed, Springdale, Pa., reported at 2:35 p.m. Monday that two tarpaulins valued at $90, four ratchet binders valued at $60 and four chains valued at $40 were stolen from his truck while it was parked at 2201 Charles St. last Dec. 24.

Post Corp First Quarter Earnings Increase 19.3%

Appleton, Wis.—Post Corporation on Monday reported first-quarter earnings of $244,198 before realized securities gains. This represented a 19.3% increase over the $204,675 reported in the first quarter a year ago.

Per share earnings were 26 cents compared with 27 cents a year ago. As a result of a public offering last November, Post now has about 25% more shares outstanding than last year.

The company's principal insurance subsidiary, AllStar Insurance Corp., also reported $13,339 in realized capital gains from securities transactions. After provision for a 0.3% minority interest, this contributed another one cent per share to Post's earnings.

The company said its insurance earnings were lower for the quarter, while earnings of its media division—newspapers and broadcast stations — increased.

The insurance division this year experienced normal winter property and casualty losses while claims for such losses were abnormally low during the first quarter of 1970. Media earnings were helped by increased demand for newspaper and broadcast advertising.

Two operations which lost money in 1970 and 1971 reported profits during the first quarter of 1972, the company said. These were Post Financial Corp., an insurance premium finance firm, and the company's commercial printing operations.

Post, headquartered in Appleton, is a diversified firm with media and insurance operations in eight states, including ownership of the Press-Record.

Net revenue, $3,910,717 ($3,046,712).

Operating expenses, $3,273,648 ($2,567,408).

Net earnings before income from unconsolidated subsidiaries, $145,740 ($82,931).

Equity in net earnings of unconsolidated subsidiaries before realized capital gains, $98,458 ($121,744).

Net earnings before realized capital gains, $244,198 ($204,675).

Net earnings including realized capital gains, $257,537 (204,675).

Per share before realized capital gains, .26 (.27).

Per share including realized capital gains, .27 (.27).

Scott Opinion Limits State Travel Expense

Atty. Gen. William J. Scott has issued an opinion which limits travel expense reimbursements to all members of state commissions and advisory boards, whether they are salaried or receive no compensation for their services.

Such reimbursements, Scott said, must conform with state travel regulations.

The opinion, given to state Travel Control Board Chairman Richard L. Mathias, held that the state travel regulations are "applicable to both salaried commission members, such as members of the Industrial Commission or the Commerce Commission and members of code department advisory boards and advisory boards for commissions who receive no compensation for their services."

Are State Agencies

Scott said such boards and commissions are legally construed as "state agencies" and state travel regulations are applicable. The Illinois Auditing Act defines "state agencies" as:

" . . . all officers, departments, boards, commissions, institutions, universities, colleges, bodies politic and corporate of the state and any other person or any other administrative unit of state government or corporate outgrowth thereof, expending or encumbering state funds by virtue of an appropriation from the General Assembly, or handling money on behalf of the state, or holding any trust funds from any source derived . . ." (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1971, ch. 15, par. 63).

Scott's opinion focused on certain statutory language which allows appointees to such boards and commissions to be reimbursed for their "actual and necessary expenses." Actual expenses, however, could exceed the amounts established in state travel regulations.

The opinion establishes fixed reimbursements limits for all members of the many state commissions and advisory boards to the commissions and code departments.

ARTISTS TO EXHIBIT AT MADISON LIBRARY SUNDAY

Local artists whose works will be exhibited Sunday at the Madison Public Library, include Jack Friedman, McKinley Hardmon, Mrs. Nick Bogovich, Gene and James Hargrave and students from Harris and Blair schools, according to Mrs. Harry R. Johnson, art chairman.

The show will be presented under the auspices of the Madison Library Board. The public may view the exhibits from 2:30 to 5:30 p.m. Sunday, Mrs. Johnson said.

G.I. Training Helps Build Vast Women's Work Force

Veterans Administration education and training has started more than 130,000 women on their way to join the nation's trained personnel pool since the end of the Korean Conflict in 1955, the agency has reported.

The number includes:

About 29,000 women veterans of military service who have trained under the current G.I. Bill since 1966, plus approximately 1,000 ex-service women who have received education and training under VA vocational rehabilitation for persons disabled as a result of military service.

Some 14,000 widows of men killed in military service, and wives of totally disabled veterans and of those missing in action and prisoners of war.

Some 86,000 young women between 18 and 26 years who are war orphans (children of men or women killed or permanently and totally disabled as the result of service in the armed forces, or of servicemen missing in action or prisoners of war). Women make up about 48% of the total number of the war orphans who have trained under VA assistance.

At College Level

About 61% of each of the first two groups were in college and university level courses. Nearly 73% of the 86,000 women war orphans were in college.

Currently, about 12,000 women veterans are enrolled under the G.I. Bill. About 5,500 wives and widows and 35,000 war orphans, of whom about 48% are women, are in training under VA educational assistance.

Although the program for wives and widows began in December 1968, it is not limited to those whose husbands were in Vietnam Era service.

Some 147,000 women are believed to be eligible for wives and widows educational assistance, including some of those whose husbands served during World War I, World War II, the Korean Conflict, and peacetime.

VA provides extensive vocational and educational counseling to help veterans and the wives and widows and orphans choose occupations compatible with their interests and abilities, and to plan a course of training qualifying them for their chosen objectives.

Women interested in learning more about VA educational benefits may telephone, write, or visit the Veterans Assistance Division of the nearest VA Regional Office, or write to the Veterans Assistance Division, Veterans Administration Central Office, Washington, D.C., 20420, for a copy of the pamphlet "Federal Benefits for Veterans and Dependents."
